

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

Part 4: What's In It for Me?

Pastor Stephen Han

Ice-Breaker: What would you do with your life if money was not an issue? Elaborate your answer.

- 1) Read Mark 10:35-45.
 - a. Why does Jesus say James and John don't understand what they're asking? What are they missing?
 - b. How does the world understand greatness, and how do people in God's kingdom understand it?
 - c. What does it mean that Jesus came to "give his life as a ransom" (v. 45)?
 - d. What is the relationship between our serving (vv. 42-44) and Jesus' serving (v. 45)?
- 2) How do Christians today still jockey for positions of honor, privilege, and power? In the church? In the world? Why do you think so?
- 3) In what way can you see yourself passionately serving others and loving it?
- 4) If you are currently serving in the church, what motivates you to serve? Share some highlights from serving experiences. If you are not currently serving, what holds you back from serving? How would you like to serve in the church? (Please check out NewStory website for serve opportunities and choose one.)
- 5) Where in your life do you have influence, power, position or authority? How can you practice servanthood in that role this week? Who in your life is God calling you to serve today?
- 6) What part of the message spoke to you? Who will you share what you've learned this week?

Take some time to thank Jesus for being our Servant King, and ask Him to guide you to reflect His character by serving others with a heart of humility.