Seven years ago,
AA Plus was just an idea & an intention.
Today, it's you.

Assalamualaikum my Champions,

Last Sunday, we gathered together to celebrate seven years of AA Plus - and what a night it was. So much laughter, happy tears, and a whole lot of gratitude for how far we've come, and for you, who made it all worth it.

Every anniversary deserves gifts, so we made you some! Not the kind you unwrap and forget, but the kind that keeps giving: to you, to each other, and to people you may never even meet.

PS: If you were there, thank you for showing up and making it special. And if you couldn't make it, don't worry - here is a recap, so you don't miss a single thing. 🧡

Here's everything we unwrapped on the call, Bismillah!

The Everyday Champ Tee 🎉

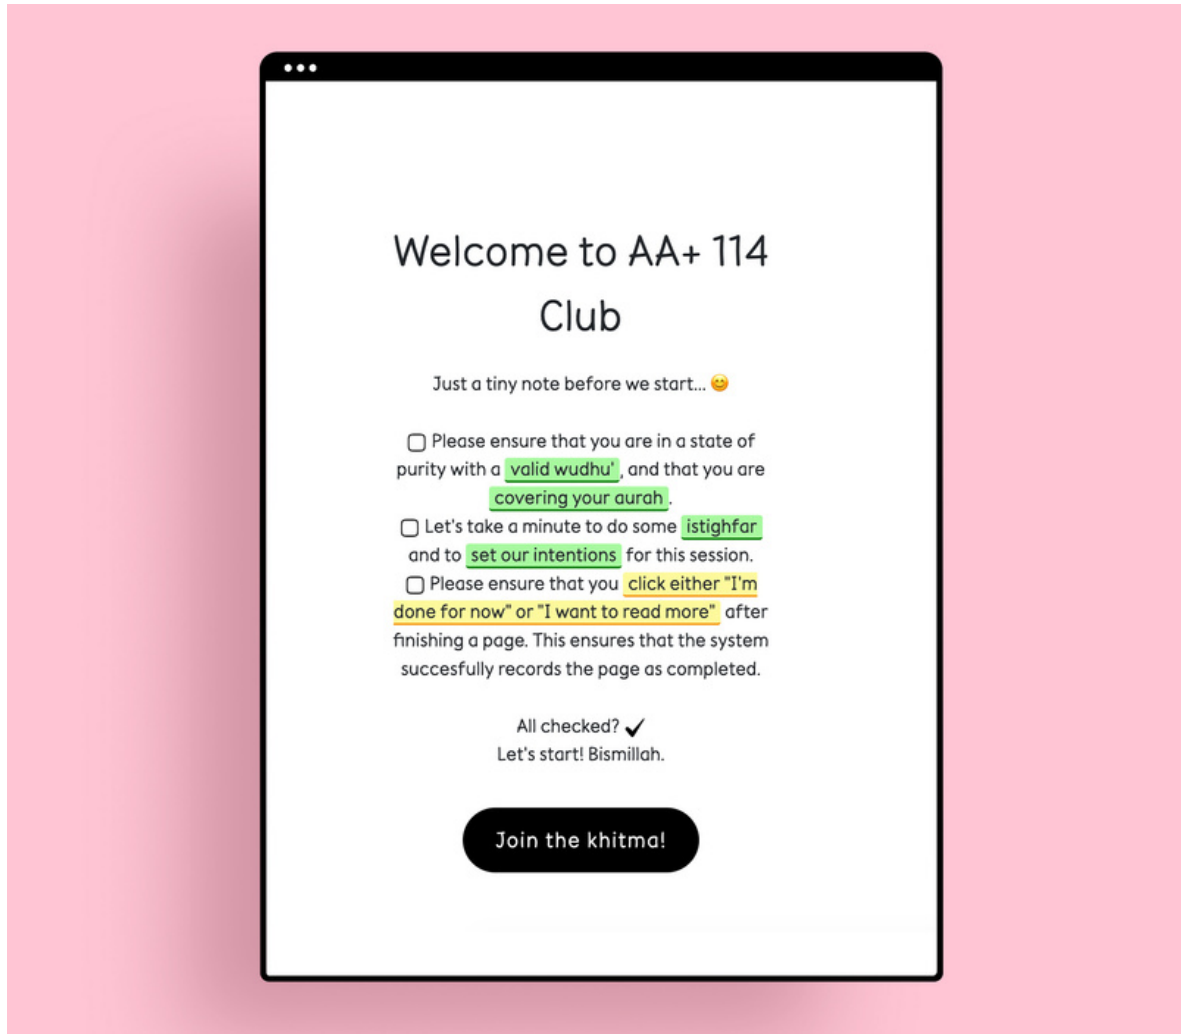

We've always wanted to make a tee just for our champs - and it's finally here, Alhamdulillah! We wanted something you could actually wear: not tucked in a drawer for special occasions, but pulled on for the school run, the grocery trip, the lazy Sunday. Something soft, easy, and essentially ours. The Everyday Champ Tee is exactly that - a little piece of AA Plus you can carry into your everyday. We made it with our very own champ, Shidah, who runs the wonderful brand Bambina. Their everyday tee is honestly the comfiest thing we've ever worn - made of soft cotton, loose cut, drop-shoulder, made to be lived in. PS: It's a pre-order, and as our small way of saying thank you for growing with us, we're offering it purely at cost. Once a champ, always a champ!

Our Khitma Web-App! 🎉

At AA Plus, we've always tried to complete khitmas of the Qur'an together - every Ramadan without fail, and as often as we can outside of it too.

There's something about all of us reading collectively, each juzuk joining the next, moving toward one shared finish line. This year, one of our own champs, Hanis, took that love and built something beautiful for us: a little online home for our collective khitma. She demo'd it live on the call last Sunday, and we were all so excited!

You have to try it for yourself to see how beautifully simple it is. Champs can now join a khitma anywhere, anytime - Ma Sha Allah, Alhamdulillah, YAY! PS: I've got the link bookmarked so it's easy to jump in and contribute; you should too. 💖

The Champs Directory 🎉

Over the years, we keep getting emails like, "Do you know any champs in London?" ... "Anyone here who studied psychology?" And it hit us - this community is full of treasure, scattered all over the world, and we've only ever connected you to each other one email at a time. This is why we're building The Champs Directory; a simple form where you tell us who you are, where you are, and what you'd love to help with, so we can gently connect the right champs when someone needs a hand. It runs both ways - so when you need a hand one day, In Sha Allah, the right people are just an introduction away. And so you feel completely safe: the directory is held by the team only. Never public, never shared, and we only ever make an introduction with your okay first. 💖 PS: Champs on the call were excited for this one!

Charity in Your Name 🎉

Every anniversary, we choose a special cause to support in your name and this year is no different. You may know Ummu Jannah, one of our champs. Madrasah Al-Ain began with her mother asking one question to children she kept seeing out of school: "Kenapa tak pergi sekolah?" - "Why aren't you in school?". That one question and her sincere intention to help became a madrasah, Ma Sha Allah! When her mother passed (may Allah place her in the highest Jannah), Ummu understood that "she was preparing me" to take over, and she did, Ma Sha Allah, keeping the doors open and the promise alive. For our 7th anniversary, we're channelling funds to Madrasah Al-Ain - helping them with their day-to-day operations for a year - honouring a mother's legacy the way she'd have wanted: by keeping children in school.

You know what's the most beautiful part? Every one of these gifts was made by a Champ. Shidah, Hanis, Ummu Jannah - this isn't what we built for you; it's what you built for each other. <3 May Allah protect and bless this Suhbah and this community always, and in all ways!
