GOA FOR US

Goa isn't just a destination.

It's where plans become stories and strangers become the people you'll laugh about for years.

This isn't the Goa of packed tourist spots and rushed sightseeing. It's cliff jumps that get your heart racing, jungle trails leading to hidden beaches, sunsets that make you pause, and nights where nobody wants the music to stop.

We'll chase golden evenings from forts and beaches, kayak through peaceful backwaters, discover secret corners that most tourists never find, and dance under the stars with the best company.

If you're looking for a trip that's equal parts adventure, relaxation, and unforgettable nights, welcome home.

Because the best part of Goa has never been the places.

It's the people you experience it with.

Goa with Firgun ❤️👍

One of the best decisions I made this year is taking a trip to Goa which was organised by Firgun travels. It's been days now but even today I cherish each and every moment of the trip. Being a worrier by nature, I was anxious before booking the trip as I had never travelled with strangers before but I am glad that I took that leap of faith. A big shoutout to Kajal who supported me everyday and created an environment where everybody could bond and just be themselves.

The best part of the trip was its super fun packed itinerary that included watching pretty sunsets, water sports, Kayaking, clubbing, nature hikes, some hidden gems and not to forget the night all trippers had some deep and meaningful conversations. Being a foodie, I also got to have delicious food in Goa thanks to Kajal for taking us to the finest cafes. I was a little apprehensive the day we were doing the water sports but Kajal encouraged me by saying that these could be some unforgettable experiences and I should give a try, I am glad I listened to her. After doing parasailing and jet ski I felt a surge of confidence in myself and felt like all life difficulties disappeared.

They say that travelling is not just about the destination but also about the people you meet and I think no one understands it better than Firgun. I think I not only had an amazing trip but also have a bunch of people now who will be my lifelong friends.

This experience will stay with me forever and I can't wait to go on more trips with Firgun. :)

ENERGY TRIP

After being following FIRGUN travels for a while, I could finally make it to go with this team in Feb to GOA. It has been an amazing trip where one get that cozy atmosphere to just enjoy the moment. It never felt like a scheduled pack that we should follow with, to complete the day which is common in travel packages. It was fun, laughter, music and dance, bike rides, beach times, cafe hopping and rating food all with one amazing trip lead TANVI and other co-travellers. TANVI just made the trip super awesome with her energy levels and bringing out the best from everyone.
