Algo Grande

TSX.V: ALGR

High-Grade Copper in North America

Algo Grande Copper is a growth-oriented mineral exploration company focused on expanding the Adelita Project - a district scale, Porphyry-Skarn copper-silver-gold project situated in the prolific Arizona-Sonora copper belt.

Algo Grande

Our Strategy

- Advancing a high-grade discovery with characteristics typical of porphyry-skarn systems in northwestern Mexico
- Unlock district potential by testing the porphyry system at depth and Skarn targets along the 6 km mineralized corridor
- In partnership with a technical team credited with multiple discoveries and billion-dollar exits in Mexico
- Disciplined, science-driven approach to guide exploration and delineate a world-class copper deposit

Leveraging US$8M in Historical Investment & Exploration Data

Historic Drilling | Identified high-grade Cu mineralization with significant Au-Ag credits.

Historical Drill Highlights:

- 47.64 m @ 1.05% Cu, 0.46 g/t Au, 46.00 g/t Ag
- 22.35 m @ 1.35% Cu, 0.51 g/t Au, 69.00 g/t Ag
- 11.20 m @ 1.11% Cu, 0.59 g/t Au, 39.90 g/t Ag

Project Highlights

A Scalable, High-Grade Copper-Silver-Gold Skarn Discovery in Mexico's #1 Copper State.

1 District-Scale Porphyry-Skarn Opportunity

5,985-hectare land package anchored by the Cerro Grande Skarn discovery—representing just ~5% of total property area.

2 Multiple Untested High-Impact Targets

6 km corridor of untested skarn targets, plus a large 4.5 km porphyry geophysical-geochemical anomaly.

3 Fully Permitted & Drill-Ready

Exploration permit and social licenses secured, including underground mining permit; Phase II (~8,000m) is actively underway as of June 2026.

4 Un-drilled Porphyry Target at Depth

Geophysics define a high-resistivity, high-magnetic body beneath the skarn consistent with a copper-rich porphyry source.

5 High-Grade Cu-Au-Ag Skarn at Surface

Cerro Grande delivers strong historic intercepts, including 47.6 m @ 1.05% Cu with meaningful silver and gold credits.

Phase I Drilling Results

4 holes | 1,998 m | Results reported April 2, 2026

57 m above 1.8% CuEq

Consistent Cu-Au-Ag mineralization across multiple intervals, confirming a vertically stacked high-grade skarn system

BEST INTERCEPT — AG_GC_003

18.2 m @ 1.8% CuEq

1.2% Cu | 28.2 g/t Ag | 0.7 g/t Au

incl. 3.5 m @ 3.9% CuEq
(2.4% Cu, 61.1 g/t Ag, 1.8 g/t Au)

Our Principle Objectives

Expanding the Cerro Grande Skarn Discovery (Only 5% of total land package)

Cerro Grande Central hosts a high-grade, near-surface Cu-Ag-Au skarn.

Advancing Untested Multi-Target Exploration

Land-package hosts multiple undrilled skarn targets and a 4.5 km porphyry-related geophysical and geochemical anomaly.

Forward Looking Statement

Cautionary Statement

This presentation (the "Presentation") of Algo Grande Copper Corp. (the "Company") is dated January 2026. It is information in a summary form and does not purport to be complete. It is not intended to be relied upon as advice to investors or potential investors and does not address the investment objectives, financial situation or needs of any particular investor.

Certain statements contained in this Presentation constitute "forward-looking information" as such term is defined in applicable Canadian securities legislation, including statements relating to the acquisition of the Adelita Project and the proposed exploration and development activities and prospects for the Adelita Project. The words "may", "would", "could", "should", "potential", "will", "seek", "intend", "plan", "anticipate", "believe", "estimate", "expect" and similar expressions as they relate to the Company, are intended to identify forward-looking information. All statements other than statements of historical fact may be forward-looking information. Such statements reflect the Company's current views and intentions with respect to future events, and current information available to the Company, and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Many factors could cause the actual results, performance or achievements that may be expressed or implied by such forward- looking information to vary from those described herein should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize. Certain of the "risk factors" that could cause actual results to differ materially from the Company's forward-looking statements include, without limitation, the following: risks related to the receipt of all necessary third party and regulatory approvals, including stock exchange approval and environmental approvals; changes in project parameters as plans continue to be refined; fluctuations in prices of commodities, including copper; failure of plant, equipment or processes to operate as anticipated; accidents, labour disputes, title disputes, claims and limitations on insurance coverage and other risks of the mining industry; delays in the completion of exploration, development or construction activities; health and safety risks; climate change risks; risks related to potential opposition from non-governmental organizations and public interest groups; changes in national and local government regulation of mining operations, tax rules and regulations, and political and economic developments in Mexico; reliance on management and dependence on key personnel; competition in the mining industry; risks related to international operations; fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates; substantial capital requirements and liquidity; uninsurable risks; litigation; risks related to and uncertainty associated with general economic conditions, actual results of current exploration activities, unanticipated reclamation expenses; and other factors beyond the control of the Company. The material assumptions upon which forward-looking statements in this Presentation are based include, (i) the results from any future exploration that may be undertaken by the Company will align with expectations and prior results; (ii) the availability of experienced staff and the Company's ability to source resources to carry out its activities; (iii) future demand and trends in industries in which the Company may participate; (iv) the Company's ability to continue to work with project partners, stakeholders, community leaders and regulatory bodies; (v) the Company's ability to effectively compete for customers, suppliers and talent; and (vi) stable market and general economic conditions. Should any factor affect the Company in an unexpected manner, or should assumptions underlying the forward-looking information prove incorrect, the actual results or events may differ materially from the results or events predicted.

Any such forward-looking information is expressly qualified in its entirety by this cautionary statement. The forward-looking information included in this Presentation is made as of the date of this Presentation and the Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward- looking information, other than as required by applicable law.

Technical Disclosure

Qualified Person and NI 43-101 Disclosure

The scientific and technical information contained in this Presentation has been reviewed and approved by Mr. Lorne Warner, P. Geo., an independent Qualified Person for Algo Grande Copper Corp. as defined in NI 43-101.

Mr. Warner has examined information regarding the historical exploration at the Adelita copper project, which includes his review of the historical sampling, analytical and procedures and two site visits to verify drill collar locations and personally collect rock samples for analysis. Mr. Warner also completed a technical report on the Adelita Project prepared in accordance with NI 43-101 dated effective August 15, 2025, which is available under the Company's profile at www.sedarplus.ca.

Management notes that historical results were collected and reported by operators unrelated to the Company but have been verified by its Qualified Person; as a result, the historical results create a scientific basis for ongoing work on the Adelita property. Management cautions that historical results, discoveries and any published resource estimates on adjacent or nearby mineral properties, whether in stated current resource estimates or historical resource estimates, are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be achieved on the Adelita property.

Statutory Rights of Action

In certain circumstances, purchasers resident in certain provinces of Canada, are provided with a remedy for rescission or damages, or both, in addition to any other right they may have at law, where a presentation and any amendment to it contains a misrepresentation. Where used herein, "misrepresentation" means an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact that is required to be stated or that is necessary to make any statement not misleading in light of the circumstances in which it was made. These remedies, or notice with respect to these remedies, must be exercised or delivered, as the case may be, by the purchaser within the time limits prescribed by applicable securities legislation.

The following summary is subject to the express provisions of the applicable securities laws, regulations and rules, and reference is made thereto for the complete text of such provisions. Such provisions may contain limitations and statutory defenses not described here on which the company and other applicable parties may rely. Purchasers should refer to the applicable provisions of the securities legislation of their province for the particulars of these rights or consult with a legal adviser.

The following is a summary of rights of rescission or damages, or both, available to purchasers resident in the province of Ontario, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Saskatchewan. If there is a misrepresentation herein and you are a purchaser under securities legislation in Ontario, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Saskatchewan you have, without regard to whether you relied upon the misrepresentation, a statutory right of action for damages, or while still the owner of the securities, for rescission against the company. This statutory right of action is subject to the following: (a) if you elect to exercise the right of action for rescission, you will have no right of action for damages against the company; (b) except with respect to purchasers resident in Nova Scotia, no action shall be commenced to enforce a right of action for rescission after 180 days from the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action; (c) no action shall be commenced to enforce a right of action for damages after the earlier of (i) 180 days (with respect to purchasers resident in Ontario) or one year (with respect to purchasers resident in Saskatchewan and New Brunswick) after you first had knowledge of the facts giving rise to the cause of action and (ii) three years (with respect to purchasers resident in Ontario) or six years (with respect to purchasers resident in Saskatchewan and New Brunswick) after the date of the transaction that gave rise to the cause of action; (d) with respect to purchasers resident in Nova Scotia, no action shall be commenced to enforce a right of action for rescission or damages after 120 days from the date on which payment for the securities was made by you; (e) the company will not be liable if it proves that you purchased the securities with knowledge of the misrepresentation; (f) in the case of an action for damages, the company will not be liable for all or any portion of the damages that it proves do not represent the depreciation in value of the securities as a result of the misrepresentations; (g) in no case will the amount recoverable in such action exceed the price at which the securities were sold to you; and (h) with respect to purchasers resident in Saskatchewan or Nova Scotia, the court may deny the right to recover a contribution where, in all the circumstances of the case, it is satisfied that to permit recovery of a contribution would not be just and equitable. Such provisions may contain limitations and statutory defenses on which the company may rely.

In Manitoba, the Securities Act (Manitoba), in Newfoundland and Labrador the Securities Act (Newfoundland and Labrador), in Prince Edward Island the Securities Act (PEI), in Yukon, the Securities Act (Yukon), in Nunavut, the Securities Act (Nunavut) and in the Northwest Territories, the Securities Act (Northwest Territories) provide a statutory right of action for damages or rescission to purchasers resident in Manitoba, Newfoundland and Labrador, PEI, Yukon, Nunavut and Northwest Territories respectively, in circumstances where this document or an amendment hereto contains a misrepresentation, which rights are similar, but not identical, to the rights available to Ontario purchasers.

The statutory rights of action described above is in addition to and without derogation from any other right or remedy at law.
