About Maha Juice Bar

Our Story

At Maha Juice Bar, we believe in fueling your body with the tastiest and healthiest nature has to offer, so you can live your most vibrant life. Our journey began with a vision to provide every city in America with a refreshing and nourishing food option that encourages healthier living and enriches communities.

Founded by Marcieli Pastorio, Maha Juice Bar is more than just a business; it's a passion project deeply rooted in love, service, and guidance inspired by Biblical principles. With a background as an immigrant entrepreneur from Brazil, Marcieli's story is one of resilience, determination, and a relentless pursuit of making a positive impact.

Our Mission

Our mission is simple: to honor God by serving His masterpiece—your body—with the finest, freshest ingredients available. We believe that true nourishment comes from natural, unprocessed foods, and our goal is to provide juices, smoothies, and bowls that are both delicious and healthful.

At the heart of our mission is a deep appreciation for the uniqueness of each customer. We understand that every individual has distinct needs and preferences, and we strive to create a welcoming environment where everyone feels valued and cared for. Our commitment to quality and personalized service ensures that each experience with us is tailored to nourish both body and spirit.

Authentic Acai Bowls

Discover the pure taste of authentic açai bowls at Maha Juice Bar, crafted with premium Brazilian açai for a truly vibrant and delicious experience. Our açai comes directly from the lush rainforests of Brazil, where it is sustainably harvested by local communities who carefully pick these nutrient-rich berries at their peak ripeness. Our açai bowls are a celebration of natural goodness, crafted to retain their deep purple hue and rich flavor—a sign of the pure, authentic açai that sets us apart.
