ANGLO SOLAR

MODERN SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING STATEMENT

MARCH 2025

Purpose Anglo Solar is a solar module brand wholly owned by UKSOL Ltd (“the Company”) and is committed to the practice of responsible corporate behaviour and to complying with all laws, regulations and other requirements which govern the conduct of our operations.

Introduction

This Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement is a response to Section 54(1), Part 6 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and relates to actions and activities for the financial year ending 31 March 2023. UKSOL Ltd (“the Company”, ‘we’, ‘us’ or ‘our’) is committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking violations in its own operations, its supply chain, and its products. We have zero-tolerance towards slavery and require our supply chain to comply with our values.

Organisational structure

UKSOL Ltd has business operations in the United Kingdom and outsourced solar module factory production facilities in Europe and Asia. We operate in the solar energy solutions sector. The nature of our supply chains is as follows: We work with a number of key direct suppliers, who provide us with goods, such as raw materials, solar cells, solar module components, cable, equipment for our premises, and services, such as outsourced business processes. For more information about the Company, please visit our website: www.uksol.uk.

Due Diligence

As part of our efforts to monitor and reduce the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains, we have adopted the following due diligence procedures:

- Internal supplier audits.
- External supplier audits.
- Checking certain suppliers with external third parties for any slavery or human trafficking risks.

Our due diligence procedures aim to:

Identify and action potential risks in our business and supply chains.

Monitor potential risks in our business and supply chains

Reduce the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our business and supply chains.

Risk and compliance

The Company has evaluated the nature and extent of its exposure to the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in its UK supply chain through:

- Evaluating the slavery and human trafficking risks of each new supplier.
- Reviewing on a regular basis all aspects of the supply chain based on supply chain mapping.

We do not tolerate slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains. Where there is evidence of failure to comply with our procedures by any of our suppliers, we will require that supplier to remedy the non-compliance.

Effectiveness

The Company uses Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) to measure its effectiveness and ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place in its business and supply chains. These KPIs are as follows:

- We will contact suppliers to enquire about their modern slavery practices every 3 months. We will carry out a regular external audit of suppliers.
- On request, suppliers of specific components may be asked to provide verified evidence of where materials are made, by whom and under what conditions for specific orders.

The statement was approved by the board of directors.
