Classes of consumers for whom the product is clearly unsuitable

This product is not suitable for customers who:

- do not meet our credit assessment eligibility requirements;
- are seeking the certainty of fixed repayments over the term of the loan.

Explanation of why the product is likely to be consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of consumers in the target market

The product is likely to be consistent with the financial situation, needs and objectives of customers in our target market based on the features of the product mentioned above. This is because it enables customers to:

- purchase an owner-occupied or investment residential property;
- make principal and interest repayments in order to reduce the principal balance of the loan and increase equity in their home; and
- make use of an offset facility or redraw funds.

Distribution Conditions

Distribution conditions

The product may only be distributed through the following channels:

- by phone;
- through third party distributors (eg, mortgage brokers); and
- through mortgage managers.

Distribution conditions may include:

- ensuring that customers meet the eligibility requirements for the loan;
- ensuring that the product is only distributed in accordance with the most up-to-date version of this TMD;
- ensuring that third party distributors are appropriately authorised.

Why the distribution conditions and restrictions will make it more likely that the consumers who acquire the product are in the target market

The distribution conditions and restrictions make it likely that the consumers who acquire the product are in the target market by:

- ensuring that customers will have been provided with sufficient information about the product before being offered the product;
- requiring customers to provide specific information, disclosure and evidence to confirm they meet eligibility requirements for the product; and
- ensuring that only customers who meet our credit assessment and eligibility criteria are offered the product.

Review Triggers

The review triggers that would reasonably suggest that the TMD is no longer appropriate include:

- A significant dealing of the product to consumers outside the target market occurs;
- A significant number of complaints is received from customers in relation to their purchase or use of the product that reasonably suggests that the TMD is no longer appropriate;
- A material change to the product or the terms and conditions of the product occurs which would cause the TMD to no longer be appropriate;
- There is a material change in the way we distribute the product;
- There is a material change to the credit policy which has an impact on the target market;
- The performance of the product, as determined by the Manager, is evidence that the product is no longer appropriate for the target market; or
- Where 10% or more of our total borrowers (joint borrowers to be treated as a single borrower) are in hardship at any one time.

Review Periods

First review date: Within the 12 months of the date of this TMD.

Periodic reviews: Every 12 months from the first review date and each subsequent review date.
