Comprehension Passage

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Once upon a time in a small village nestled between rolling hills and a sparkling river, there lived a young boy named Oliver. Oliver was known throughout the village for his curious mind and adventurous spirit. Every morning, he would set out with his trusty dog, Max, exploring the forests and meadows that surrounded his home. One day, while wandering deeper into the woods than he ever had before, Oliver stumbled upon a hidden path. Overgrown with vines and surrounded by ancient trees, the path seemed to beckon him forward.

Intrigued, Oliver and Max followed the winding trail until they reached a clearing bathed in golden sunlight. In the centre stood a magnificent oak tree, its branches stretching towards the sky, and at its base lay a small, ornate box. Oliver approached the box cautiously and noticed intricate carvings of animals and plants adorning its surface. Unable to resist, he opened the box to find a shimmering, golden key.

Wondering what the key might unlock, Oliver looked around and noticed a door embedded in the trunk of the oak tree. The door was so well-hidden that it seemed to be a part of the tree itself. He inserted the key into the lock, and the door creaked open to reveal a spiral staircase descending into the earth. With Max by his side, Oliver began to climb down the stairs, his heart pounding with excitement and a hint of fear.

At the bottom of the staircase, they found themselves in a vast underground chamber filled with treasures beyond imagination—glittering jewels, stacks of gold coins, and artifacts from long-forgotten civilizations. However, what caught Oliver's eye was a simple, old map hanging on the wall. It depicted lands he had never seen and promised adventures he had only dreamed of. Realizing that the greatest treasure was the adventure itself, Oliver took the map and decided to set off on a new journey, eager to discover the wonders that awaited him beyond the horizon.
