

Sample Work

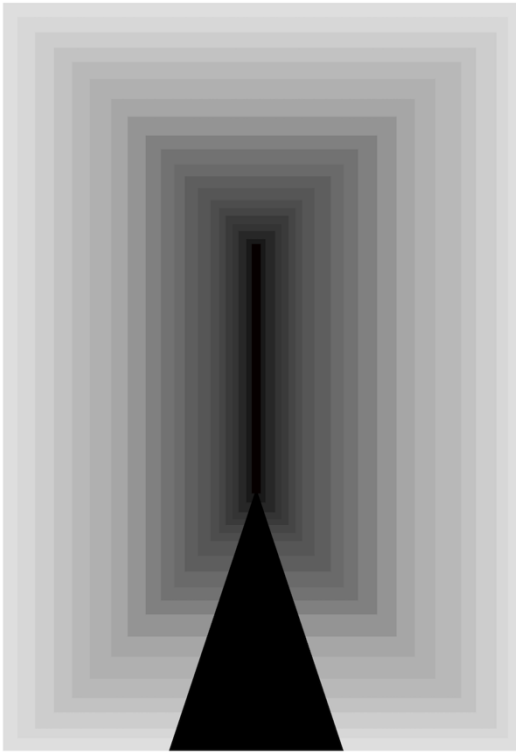

This is now a released company in my city. They sought my help in their logo design and branding. Here, I created a Circular Logo with a horizontal text box to meet client requirements, Additionally, I also assisted them in branding and created a brochure for them. The logo and the Boucher are shown

This is a logo designed for an unreleased online educational institution based in the United Kingdom. Their requirements were to meet a simple text logo with an education symbol. So I decided to design and insert a scholar paper sign instead of the letter "i" in Wright.

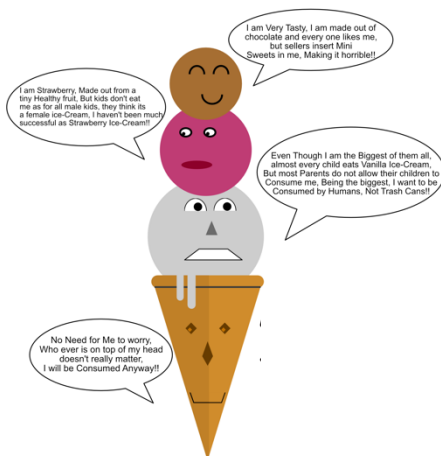

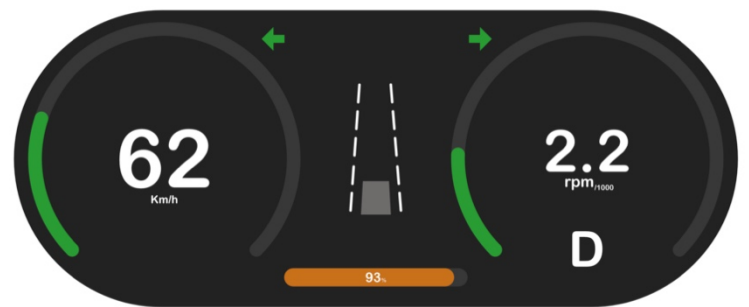

These are Kitchen Utensils, beautifully designed in a constant pattern, may be very good for places like backgrounds in a poster, Table mat, etc.

This is a poster I created considering the theme, infinite. So I decided to create a poster of a pathway which seem to just, never end. And here is an illustration to my Idea.

This is a car speedometer concept I created as a proposal for someone. Normal car speedometers often look too complicated and congested. This very simple speedometer concept may be an attractive looking screen every manufacturer may want in their car.

This is an Ice-cream cone cartoon with an argument among the three ice-cream flavours and how the cone itself is relaxed.
