INTERIOR DESIGN

SEPTEMBER
2005

New York: Sky High

William Switzer

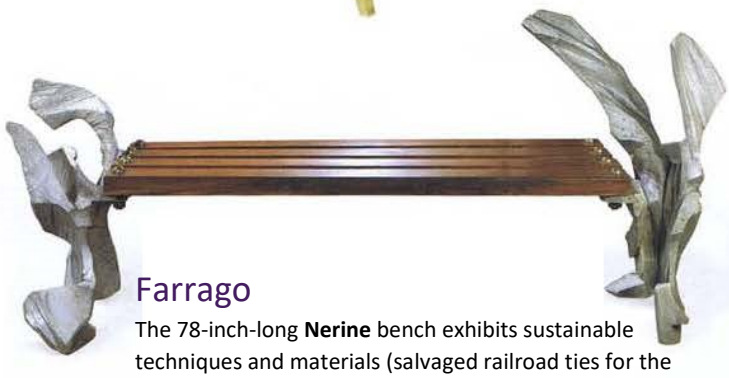

From the Lucien Rollin Collection comes the Chaise Apollon lounge and ottoman-in cotibe wood with brass, nickel, or bronze hardware and feet. 6-611 Alexander Street, Vancouver. British Columbia V6A1E1, Canada: 604-255-5911; williamswitzercotlection.com. circle 338

Holly Hunt

Christian Liaigre's posh lounge seating includes Beluga. This sofa, upholstered in COM, is 9 feet 10 inches wide with oak arms. The base comes in oak or metallic finishes such as graphite. 801 West Adams Street, Suite 700, Chicago. IL 60607; 312-329-5999; hollyhunt.com. circle 340

Farrago

The 78-inch-long Nerine bench exhibits sustainable techniques and materials (salvaged railroad ties for the seat and sand-cast aluminum for the legs) and high-concept whimsy (wings). Sublime American Design. 26 Varick Street, New York, NY 10013; 212-941-8888; sublimeamericandesign.com. circle 339

Smith & Watson

An update on a Thomas Hope original from the 19th century, the Hall chair imparts grace to even the most staunchly contemporary entryway. Offered in mahogany as well as this antiqued gesso finish—a look that was also popular back in Hope's time. 200 Lexington Avenue, New York. NY 10016: 212-686-6444; smith-watson.com, circle 341

Fendi Casa

Just like Fendi's clothing and accessories, the Efea is about sensual materiality. Set on a walnut and polyurethane base, the chair comes in three sizes. The more than 250 upholstery choices range from faux iguana and pony skin to Belgian linen. 90 NE 39th Street. Miami, FL 33137: 305-433-1660; fendicasa.it circle 342