

INSPIRED BY NATURE. DESIGNED FOR CONNECTION

Nekajui, meaning “lush garden” in the language of Guanacaste’s Chorotega people, reflects a deep connection to nature and place. Set within Península Papagayo, it spans 1,400 acres overlooking the Pacific Ocean.

Defined by privacy and a strong sense of identity, Nekajui offers an immersive expression of luxury in Costa Rica, where guests can fully disconnect and reconnect, and where couples, friends, and families come to live, explore, and celebrate.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Featuring ocean-facing guestrooms, suites, treetop tents, and private residences, Nekajui offers refined accommodations designed for seamless indoor-outdoor living. Private terraces, plunge pools, and outdoor showers enhance the connection to nature, while each stay is guided by a dedicated Personal Host, Manzu.
