PORTFOLIO UPDATE

During the month ended May 2026, Silverdale Bond Fund has bought Bank of East Asia, BPCE, Credit Agricole, Dexus Finance, Far East Horizon, LG Energy Solution, Manulife and Westpac Banking while it sold CFAMC, Gohl Capital, and Hyundai Capital.

The increase in the fund NAV was due to Indian, American and British credits. Sectorially, Financial, Consumer Cyclical and Energy sectors were the key positive contributors.

Silverdale Bond Fund continues to be positioned conservatively, with 76% of its portfolio being high quality Investment Grade bonds with a short duration of 1.90 years, yet it has leveraged YTM (pre SGD-hedging) of 8.69% signalling higher potential returns in the coming months.

MARKET UPDATE

During May 2026, the Fund's NAV appreciated by 0.75%, bringing year-to-date returns to 0.75%, notwithstanding elevated macro volatility. Leveraged YTM (pre SGD-hedging) remains at ~8.69%, pointing to attractive forward return potential.

The Iran conflict remained the main market focus during the month, with oil markets volatile as the conflict entered its third month. However, fears of a prolonged supply shock eased following headlines around a tentative 60-day ceasefire and the reopening of the Strait of Hormuz. Brent crude, which briefly surged above US$120/bbl during peak tensions, retraced toward ~US$90/bbl, while the backwarddated futures curve continues to suggest near-term tightness rather than a structurally undersupplied market.

Despite heightened geopolitical tensions and continued macro uncertainty, credit markets have remained notably resilient as corporate balance sheets remain healthy, characterized by moderate leverage, resilient margins, healthy interest coverage ratios, and low default rates.

The Federal Reserve has maintained a cautious and data-dependent stance, with policy rates already in restrictive territory. Markets continue to price a "higher-for-longer" environment. Elevated starting yields therefore continue to remain attractive for investors, with high-quality short-duration credit offering a compelling combination of higher income visibility, lower volatility, and strong risk-adjusted return potential.

Silverdale Bond Fund remains well-positioned, focused on high-quality short-duration credit. The Fund portfolio remains diversified across 150+ securities, with ~75% investment-grade exposure and approximately 2-year duration, supporting income visibility and capital preservation.

Silverdale Bond Fund has also launched its Singapore Dollar (SGD) share class, representing a compelling opportunity for SGD investors. The SBF SGD Class offers an open-ended structure, ~4% SGD dividend yield, and target return of 5.5%-7.5% p.a. Yield enhancement is achieved through FX forward hedging, capturing US-SG interest rate differentials while accessing the world's largest corporate bond market, providing depth, credit diversity, and transparency.
