

Doctor of Audiology - Join Colorado's Premier Gold-Standard Hearing Care Team

Hearing Consultants of Colorado Springs

Where exceptional patient experience meets evidence-based, best-practice audiology.

About Us

At Hearing Consultants of Colorado Springs (HCCS), we believe that audiology is more than diagnostics and devices; it is a deeply human, relationship-centered profession. For more than 40 years, our team has earned a reputation for excellence by delivering Gold-Standard Hearing Care, prioritizing best practices, and designing a patient experience that is warm, ethical, comprehensive, and life-changing.

As we continue expanding in Southern Colorado, we are seeking an energetic Doctor of Audiology who is passionate about elevating patient outcomes, mastering advanced clinical skills, and contributing to a collaborative, high-performing team.

If you want to practice audiology thoughtfully, with time to listen, the tools to perform at the highest standard, and support to grow, this is the role for you.

What Makes This Opportunity Different

At HCCS, you will:

Practice True Best-Practice Audiology

Real-ear verification, evidence-based protocols, comprehensive case management, and gold-standard care; every patient, every time.

Deliver a Patient Experience You Can Be Proud Of

We value empathy, communication, education, and creating positive, memorable interactions at every touchpoint.

Work in a Premier, Fast-Growing Clinic

Our dynamic practice serves patients of all ages (focusing on geriatrics), offering advanced diagnostics, tinnitus care, vestibular services, hearing technology solutions, and implantable device management.

Learn, Grow, and Lead

We support professional development, specialty training, and mentorship of 4th-year students, and we invest in our clinicians both professionally and personally.
