Application Procedures

Step 1: Download and Complete the Registration Form & Price List

Please download the "Registration Form & Price List" from our website, complete and sign it, and return it by email.

Apply as a Registered Organization

The application form must be signed by the person in charge and stamped with the applying organization's chop. Organizations applying for concessionary group rates may be asked to provide relevant supporting documents.

Apply as an Individual

The applicant must be a Hong Kong resident aged 18 or above and must attend the entire camping period. The applicant must provide the Hong Kong Identity Card number on the application form so that Lodge staff can verify the applicant's identity upon arrival.

Step 2: Book Catering, Indoor Venues, Activities and Coach Services

Catering and Venue Bookings

Catering and Venue Bookings

- The applicant must return the completed and signed "Catering Facilities Application Form" to the Lodge by email at least 1 month before arrival (late submissions will not be accepted), and settle all fees in full at least 2 weeks before arrival.
- As venue availability is limited, the Lodge will process venue-hire applications according to the bookings scheduled for that day and may reserve part of the venue for internal use.
- The actual number of diners must not exceed the number reserved; otherwise, the Lodge reserves the right to charge for the additional diners.

Activity Bookings

- If the group selects the Lodge's Adventure By Design adventure training programme or an outdoorschool-based adventure training programme on the "Camp Booking Charges and Application Form", a Lodge instructor will contact the booking group to discuss the training details.

Coach Booking Service

- As the Lodge is located within a restricted area of Lantau Island and coach services are limited, groups wishing to have the Lodge arrange a coach service between the urban areas and the Lodge must apply and pay at least 3 months before arrival. After completing the "Coach Price List & Booking Form", please return it to the Lodge by email. Late submissions will not be accepted.

Step 3: Payment

After the application is accepted, the Booking Office will email an invoice to the booking group. Payment must be made by the date specified on the invoice.

Bookings made more than 6 months before arrival:

The group must pay a 50% deposit within 1 week after the invoice is issued and settle the remaining balance at least 3 months before arrival.

Bookings made less than 3 months before arrival:

The group must pay the full camping fee within 1 week after the invoice is issued.

« If the applicant fails to pay by the due date, the application will be treated as withdrawn. If the group wishes to cancel the camping period, please notify the Booking Office as soon as possible.

« Even if the number of campers decreases, all accommodation fees paid are non-refundable and may not be transferred to other charges or used to reschedule the booking. «

« If the number of campers exceeds the number of beds, day-camp places or evening-camp places reserved, the group must apply to the Lodge in advance and pay the relevant charges for the additional campers. Otherwise, the Lodge reserves the right to refuse entry to campers exceeding the reserved number.

« Payment methods: online transfer, cheque or bank deposit. Please refer to the invoice for details. Please retain the original bank-in slip and return it to the Lodge office by post or in person. The Lodge accepts booking groups paying by Government Purchase Card (P Card), but an additional handling fee of 2.75% of the total invoice amount must be paid. Pre-camp Visits.

Site Visit

- a. A booking group may conduct one pre-camp visit before the camping period, for no more than 3 hours. Please make an appointment with Lodge staff at least 1 week before the proposed visit. Each visitor must pay the day-camp fee for any subsequent visit.
- b. The number of visitors from a booking group must not exceed 10. Visitors above this limit must pay the day-camp fee.
- c. The Lodge will not provide meals or activities for pre-camp visitors.

Important Notes

- a. If a booking group organizes its own activities, the activity programme must be emailed to the Lodge for approval at least 3 weeks before arrival.
- b. Booking groups must comply with the Lodge regulations. If a group breaches the regulations, the Lodge reserves the right to terminate its services at any time, and fees paid will not be refunded. Please refer to the "Camp Notice and Rules" on the Lodge website for details.
- c. Overnight groups must complete the check-out procedure by 12:00 noon on the departure day, return all borrowed items and settle all outstanding charges.
- d. All stickers, posters, banners and other signage must be approved by the Lodge before they are displayed at designated locations.
- e. Groups wishing to film or conduct interviews at the Lodge must submit a written application by email at least 2 weeks before the camping period. Otherwise, the request will not be accepted.
- f. Booking groups must not use audio equipment in outdoor areas of the Lodge. During activities, please also keep noise to a minimum so as not to disturb other Lodge users or nearby residents.
- g. The YWCA reserves the final decision regarding the use of the Lodge. If necessary, the Lodge may cancel a confirmed camping period and refund the amount paid without giving a reason.
- h. If a group is unable to arrive as scheduled due to adverse weather, please refer to the Lodge website's "Adverse Weather Arrangements".

How to Get to the Lodge

By Lantau Bus

From Tung Chung Town Centre, take Lantau Bus 3M; the journey takes about 20 minutes and the bus stops outside the Lodge entrance. Bus 11 travels towards Tai O; alight at the roundabout at the junction of Tung Chung Road and South Lantau Road, then walk about 2 minutes towards Mui Wo. Bus 23 travels towards Ngong Ping; alight at the same roundabout, then walk about 2 minutes towards Mui Wo.

By Ferry

From Central Pier 6, take the New Ferry to Mui Wo. At Mui Wo Ferry Pier, transfer to Lantau Bus 1, 4 or 3M; the journey takes about 15 minutes to the Lodge. Sectional fares apply to Bus 1 and Bus 4; please prepare exact change.

Coach Booking

Booked by the Campers

From the urban areas directly to the Lodge:

The group may arrange a coach, but campers must apply for the Lantau Closed Road Permit and Tung Chung Road Prohibited Zone Permit (for non-franchised buses used for tourism services). For details, please refer to the Transport Department website.

From the urban areas to Tung Chung, then transfer:

The group may arrange a coach to Tung Chung and then take a Lantau Bus to the Lodge. The Lodge can arrange a Lantau Bus from Tung Chung to the Lodge; the person in charge must apply at least 3 months before arrival.

Coach Booking

Booked by the Lodge

The Lodge also provides a coach-booking service from the urban areas directly to the Lodge. The person in charge must apply at least 3 months before arrival and pay the fee. Please refer to the "Coach Booking Service and Charges" form on the Lodge website. The group must board on time; otherwise, the coach company will charge an additional waiting fee.
