Our History

"A Family Serving Families"

We have lived by this credo since opening our doors in 1951. Let our family of Funeral Service Professionals extend our compassion and hospitality to your family during your darkest hours. How can we help you to say goodbye?

It was the end of WWII. Many veterans returned from their exemplary service abroad to be faced with what to do with their lives. James A. McGuinness was one of those men. After service in the United States Army, he returned to his hometown of Woodbury. He attended Eckles School of Funeral Directing and Embalming, served his apprenticeship in Northern New Jersey and became a licensed funeral director and embalmer. He purchased the home and property on Hunter Street in Woodbury and opened the McGuinness Funeral Home in 1950.

Along with his wife, Marie Schultes-McGuinness, they slowly demonstrated to the Gloucester County Community that Jim was a compassionate, caring, and unique individual who provided exceptional service regardless of religion, status, or financial standing. This fundamental way of serving people of his community served Jim well. He slowly became the preferred funeral home for his easy going, genuine, and heart felt ways. His children Bill and Kathy continued his tradition of caring and service.

Today, his legacy lives on in a staff family of many professionals who continue to serve the needs of the families of Gloucester County from our Woodbury and Washington Township Funeral Homes. We pride ourselves in our ability to meet all your family's needs. We can satisfy any personal request, meet the needs of the most detailed of arrangements, or acknowledge your need for the simplest of ceremonies.

What is the one thing that you will experience during all of this? The fact that you feel like you are the ONLY family being served by our Funeral Home. More families have chosen McGuinness than any other Funeral Home in the area. Call us today to find out why: 800-993-0888.

We are the only area funeral home that offers a program called "The STAR Class" (see page 3); which stands for Special Times Always Remembered. This innovative program is geared to focus on the younger members of the family who may be experiencing deaths for the first time. Toddlers to pre-teens have benefited from this ground-breaking service. There is no charge for this class; it is merely a reflection of our desire to help every generation of your family.

THE STAR CLASS

The STAR Class is a sensitive, caring approach to helping children understand the funeral process. The STAR Class contains words and images that are not usually a part of every day conversation for children or adults. Providing children with the opportunity to hear the words of the funeral process, to express feelings and concerns in a creative art activity, and to write a STAR message to their loved one who has died can give them a sense of power over this new experience and help allay fears about what the funeral is all about. Other helpful resources for children can be found at www.whatsyourgrief.com, www.sesamestreet.org search for "grief" or with Mister Rogers at https://www.fredrogersinstitute.org click the RESOURCES drop-down menu and then select Talking With Children About...

For families who have chosen to pre-arrange and have pre-funded their services through the National Guardian Life (NGL), Choices NJ Trust Fund, Global Atlantic (formerly Forethought) Life Insurance Company, or Homesteaders Life Insurance Program, one of our licensed Funeral Directors will review the financial options and help gather paperwork necessary to claim the funds needed for the funeral. If there is a difference in cost, we will review what needs to be paid by the date services are rendered, what can be returned to the beneficiary, or what goes to the State of New Jersey for recipients of Medicaid.

McGuinness Funeral Home will accept all major credit cards: VISA, MasterCard, Discover, AmericanExpress, and also U.S. Cash, Personal checks, Bank checks, Cashier's checks, Business checks, and Money Orders. Due to reasons beyond our control, payments to third party companies such as: cemetery, crematory, musicians (organist, soloist, bagpiper, etc.), or individual clergy, a check may need to be written from a family member to that person/company directly; one of our Licensed Funeral Directors will prepare a list of who requires this and when it is needed.

Some people may have one or more types of life insurance. Most insurance companies may take up to three months to release any funds to a third party such as McGuinness Funeral Home. A Licensed Funeral Director or Office Manager will help review the insurance policy, help gather needed information for processing, verify a policy is valid and active, file the necessary claim, assign the cost of funeral amount to the McGuinness Funeral Home, and help ensure any remaining funds are received by the beneficiary. If you are using this policy to pay for the funeral, there is a processing fee of 4.5% ($100 minimum) of the funeral cost, for this service.

If your loved one was receiving public assistance in the form of Medicaid from the State of New Jersey, we will coordinate with the local Department of Health and Senior Services in accordance with the Work First New Jersey Manual to determine eligibility for financial assistance for the funeral. If your loved one is determined as being eligible, one of our Licensed Funeral Directors will review the financial options and limited offerings to which the State of New Jersey will allow. Please ask us for more information if your loved one was collecting public assistance.
