

Henry is a Senior Planner with experience advising on a wide range of development projects across the UK. He is recognised for his pragmatic approach, commercial awareness and ability to find solutions to complex planning challenges. Passionate about delivering successful outcomes, Henry works closely with clients and project teams to navigate the planning process and unlock development opportunities.

BSc (Hons) Geography – University of Northampton

MSc Planning – University of Manchester

Member of the Royal Town Planning Institute

Since becoming a Chartered Member of the Royal Town Planning Institute in 2023, Henry has developed extensive experience advising on residential, commercial, leisure and care sector developments across the UK. Henry provides commercially focused planning advice to clients at all stages of the development process, from initial site appraisal and planning strategy through to application submission, determination and appeals.

Henry manages a wide range of planning projects and is experienced in preparing planning appraisals, development strategies, planning statements and appeal submissions. He regularly coordinates multidisciplinary consultant teams and engages with Local Planning Authorities, statutory consultees and stakeholders to secure planning permissions and overcome development constraints. His experience includes planning applications and appeals for residential, commercial, leisure and care developments, together with change of use projects, town centre schemes and portfolio planning work for national operators across England and Scotland.

He is particularly skilled in identifying planning opportunities, managing technical and policy constraints, and guiding projects through the planning process from inception to delivery. Henry is known for his proactive approach, attention to detail and ability to provide clear, pragmatic advice whilst building strong relationships with clients and project teams.

Outside of work, Henry is a keen supporter of Manchester City and enjoys running, golf and five-a-side football. He also enjoys travelling, experiencing different cultures and discovering new restaurants.
