BRUNCH MAGAZINE

Terms of Use

Effective date: November 13, 2026
Publisher: Brunch Magazine LLC

01 Acceptance of Terms

These Terms of Use govern access to and use of www.brunch-magazine.com (the “Site”). By using the Site, you agree to these Terms to the extent permitted by applicable law. If you do not agree, discontinue use of the Site.

02 About BRUNCH Magazine

BRUNCH Magazine is published and operated by Brunch Magazine LLC (“BRUNCH Magazine,” “we,” “us,” or “our”). These Terms apply to the Site and its digital editorial content. Separate written agreements may govern advertising, licensing, subscriptions, purchases or other services, where offered.

03 Intellectual Property Rights

Original articles, essays, interviews, headlines, photographs, graphics, audiovisual materials, layouts and other original content are owned by BRUNCH Magazine or its respective contributors or licensors, as applicable, and are protected by applicable intellectual property laws. The BRUNCH Magazine name, logo and other brand identifiers may not be used in a manner that implies authorization or endorsement without prior written permission. No ownership rights are transferred through access to the Site.

04 Third-Party Content and Licensing

The Site may feature photographs, artworks, press materials and other content supplied by artists, photographers, cultural institutions, brands and other third parties. Rights remain with their respective owners. Permission granted to BRUNCH Magazine does not constitute permission for readers to reuse such materials. Requests for reproduction, syndication, translation or commercial licensing should be directed to the contact below; separate permission from a third-party rights holder may be required.

05 Permitted and Prohibited Use

You may read the Site, share links and use content for personal, noncommercial purposes consistent with applicable law. Without prior written permission, you may not reproduce, republish, distribute, translate, sell, syndicate or commercially exploit protected content, remove attribution or rights notices, impersonate BRUNCH Magazine, introduce malicious code, circumvent access controls or disrupt the Site. Nothing in these Terms restricts fair use or other rights that cannot lawfully be restricted.

06 AI and Automated Data Collection

Except as permitted by applicable law or expressly authorized in writing, automated extraction, scraping, crawling, bulk downloading or harvesting of Site content for datasets, commercial databases, artificial intelligence or machine-learning training, fine-tuning or evaluation is prohibited. Ordinary search-engine indexing for discovery and linking is permitted subject to applicable technical access directives. This permission does not extend to AI training or other unauthorized reuse.

07 Editorial Independence

BRUNCH Magazine exercises independent editorial judgment in the selection, development and publication of its editorial content. Advertising, sponsorship, gifts or business relationships do not guarantee independent editorial coverage or favorable treatment. We aim to distinguish independent editorial work from paid promotional material.

08 Editorial Disclaimer

Content is provided for general informational, cultural and editorial purposes and is not professional legal, medical, financial or other advice. Opinions expressed by contributors or interview subjects do not necessarily reflect the views of BRUNCH Magazine. Information may change after publication; readers should independently verify information when relying on it for consequential decisions.

09 Advertising and Sponsored Content

The Site may contain advertising, sponsored content, brand partnerships, affiliate links and third-party advertising services, including Google AdSense if implemented. Material commercial relationships will be disclosed as required by applicable law. Third-party advertisers are responsible for their products, services and representations. Separate written agreements govern commercial partnerships; the presence of an advertisement does not by itself constitute an editorial endorsement.

10 Corrections and Copyright Complaints

We welcome good-faith requests for factual corrections and copyright concerns. Please identify the relevant URL, the material at issue, the basis for your request and your contact information. For copyright complaints, identify the protected work, the allegedly infringing material and your authority to act. We will review requests and may correct, update or remove material as appropriate. This general contact procedure does not represent that a designated DMCA agent has been registered.

11 External Links

The Site may link to third-party websites for editorial, reference, advertising or other purposes. We do not control their content, availability, security or policies and are not responsible for their practices. Access to external services is subject to their own terms and policies.

12 Privacy and Cookies

Our separate Privacy Policy describes our handling of personal information, and our Cookie Policy describes the use of cookies and similar technologies and available choices. Please review those policies when using the Site. Where required by law, consent will be obtained separately; acceptance of these Terms does not itself constitute consent to optional cookies or advertising tracking.

13 Disclaimer of Warranties

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Site and its content are provided “as is” and “as available,” without express or implied warranties, including warranties of accuracy, completeness, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose or noninfringement. We do not guarantee uninterrupted, secure or error-free access.

14 Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Brunch Magazine LLC and its officers, employees and contributors shall not be liable for direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, special or punitive damages arising from use of, inability to use, or reliance on the Site or its content. Nothing in these Terms excludes liability for fraud, willful misconduct, gross negligence or any other liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited, or limits nonwaivable consumer rights.

15 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of New Jersey, United States, without regard to its conflict-of-laws rules. Subject to mandatory consumer protections and jurisdictional requirements, disputes shall be brought in the competent state courts in Bergen County, New Jersey, or the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey. If any provision is unenforceable, the remaining provisions remain effective to the extent permitted by law.

16 Changes to These Terms

We may revise these Terms to reflect changes in our operations, services or legal requirements. The revised Terms will be posted on the Site with an updated effective date. Material changes will be communicated and additional consent obtained where required by law. Changes apply prospectively unless otherwise agreed or permitted by law.
