Meet Chef Norman Van Aken

"Before the celebrity chef craze, before the start of Food Network, Norman Van Aken was starting a revolution. He was doing something unheard of at the time, taking local ethnic flavors, merging them together at restaurants where he worked." – The Smithsonian

Norman Van Aken is a restaurateur, chef, author, and James Beard recipient of "Who's Who in America." Credited with coining the term "Fusion Cuisine" in 1989, Van Aken is regarded as the "Founding Father of New World Cuisine", and has received many accolades, awards, and media mentions during his career.

Chef enjoys collaborating with our onsite culinary team, and making himself available for culinary demonstrations, and book signing events here at the restaurant.
