HIGHLANDS

An elevated land experience shaped by space, views, and timeless surroundings.

A Little Piece of Paradise

Highlands evoke images of open countryside, rolling landscapes, untouched green surroundings and 107 Highlands brings that vision to life. Wake to birdsong and soft morning light. Walk through open land framed by orchards, distant hills, and quiet streams. Here, nature is not occasional it becomes part of everyday living.

A Sanctuary Above the Landscape

Spread across elevated hilltop terrain in Machepalle, 107 Highlands is surrounded by verdant fields, orchards, and uninterrupted wilderness. Positioned at over 2050 feet above sea level, the project offers expansive views, cooler surroundings, and a rare sense of openness.

Far removed from the noise of the city, it is a place where the horizon feels endless and every moment unfolds at a gentler pace.
