

Super Listeners

What is Active Listening?

It means looking at the person talking, not interrupting, and really paying attention to their words.

Active Listening
K-1st grade

☐ Circle the pictures that show good listening with our bodies:

Eye Contact

Looking Away

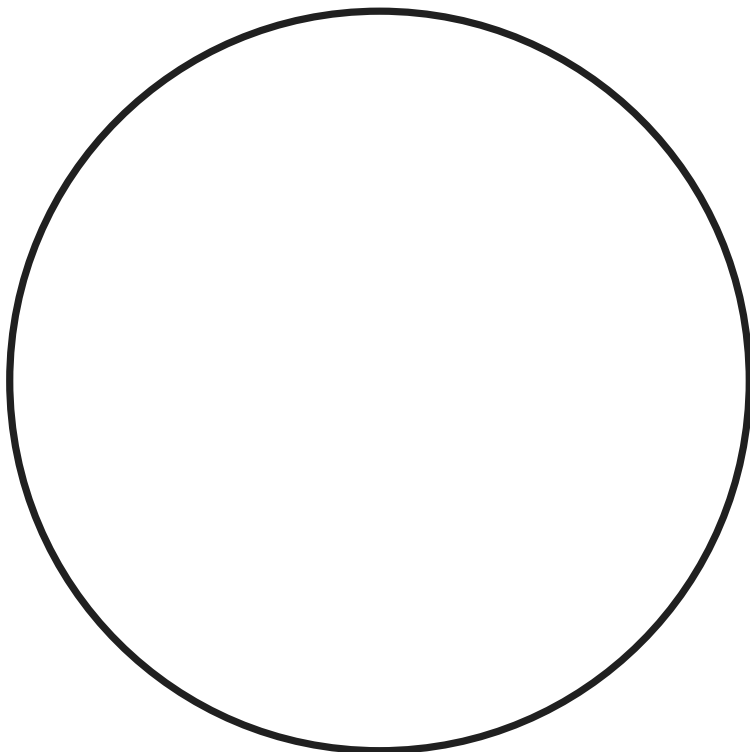

Sitting Still

Moving Around

 Draw your face when you are being a Super Listener:

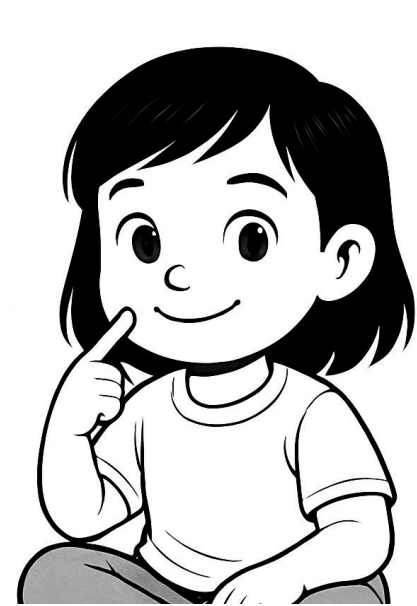

Color the listening tools that Super Listeners use:

Eyes

Ears

Mouth Closed

Toys

Hands in Lap

Phone / Device

Ask a friend or teacher to describe a simple picture to you. Listen carefully and draw what they describe without looking at their picture.

How did you use your Super Listener skills? _____

Listen to your teacher read a short story. Draw your favorite part:

Tell one thing you remember from the story: _____

Draw a line to match each picture with "Good Listening" or "Not Listening"

Interrupting

Waiting in Line

Raising you Hand

All Talking at Once

Good Listening

Not Listening

☐ Circle things that good listening helps us do:

Learn new things | Make friends | Follow directions | Play games | Understand others' feelings

 Cut out your own Super listener Badge!

I am a Super Listener when I: _____

Front

Back