

Company Profile:

TALEON is a company, founded in January 2013, offering a variety of technical sales services based on comprehensive experience, expertise and knowledge.

The goals of TALEON are as follows:

- The creation of awareness of the influence of contamination, caused by the new building process, residues of fire or flooding, on the functioning, the wear and tear and, consequently, the longevity of maritime electronic (and) precision equipment.
- The creation of understanding and knowledge of the possibilities, the guidelines and the procedures of condition assessment in terms of the severity and the composition of the contamination and the risks involved.
- The creation of understanding and knowledge of the procedures of “condition based maintenance decontamination” as an act of prevention of malfunctioning, disruptions and damages.
- The creation of understanding and knowledge of the procedures of corrective reconditioning as an act of time and costs saving and a reduction of environmental effects.
- The provision of a for specific situations customized solution / advice.