Section 1: Acknowledgement of Country

The ANU BIPOC Department acknowledges the traditional owners of the land we operate on, the Ngunnawal and Ngambri peoples. We pay our respects to First Nations Elders, past, present and emerging. We acknowledge that the land we live and operate on is stolen and sovereignty was never ceded. We welcome all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to our Collective and we commit to standing with our First Nations peoples, and we commit to supporting and working in partnership with the ANU Indigenous Department. We acknowledge Constitutions are a colonial structure - we recognise the rich and deep history of leadership and community on these lands, and commit to centering First Nations voices and experiences in all of our advocacy and community building.

Section 2: General

1. This Constitution shall come into effect immediately after it is passed at the First Collective Meeting of the academic year, at which time the prior Constitution is repealed.
2. The name of the Association is 'ANUSA Bla(c)k, Indigenous and People of Colour Department'.

Section 3: Interpretation

1. Except where the contrary intention appears, in this Constitution:
 - a. "Academic day" means a 24-hour period during any day or days that do not fall on a weekend or public holiday, and that fall during a teaching period;
 - b. "Academic week" means any week of the calendar year that includes at least 1 weekday that falls during a teaching period of the Colleges;
 - c. "Academic year" means the period between the first day of the first teaching period of the Colleges and the last day of the last teaching period of the Colleges in a calendar year;
 - d. "ANU" means the Australian National University;
 - e. "ANUSA" means the Australian National University Students' Association Inc.;
 - f. "Student" means an student enrolled in a unit or program of study for a Bachelor's Degree or any other undergraduate or postgraduate award of the Australian National University;
 - g. Bla(c)k, Indigenous and People of Colour refers to all students who self-identify as a member of one or more of these groups. This definition includes, but it is not strictly limited to: mixed-race or multi-racial people, people who are white-passing (i.e. are perceived to be white due to skin colour and other identifying features), and are Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander;

- h. “Collective” means those members of the BIPOC Department who perform the day-to-day activities of the Department, ranging (but not exhaustively) from attending regular meetings, managing the budget to implementing campaigns;
 - i. “Department” means the ANUSA BIPOC Department;
 - j. “Active Member” means those members of the BIPOC Department who have attended at least three meetings of the BIPOC Collective within the respective academic year;
 - k. “Floating chair” permits any member of the BIPOC Collective preceding it;
 - l. “Quorum” means no less than eight members of the BIPOC Department;
 - m. “Emergency” means an unforeseen situation merited by accident, sickness, or personal reasons;
 - n. “Mailing list” means the list of email contacts of subscribed members of the Collective;
 - o. “Meeting” means any constitutionally required gathering, the regulations of which are laid out within the ANUSA Constitution.
 - p. ‘Simple majority’ is defined as the highest number of votes cast for any one candidate, issue, or item exceeding the second-highest number.
2. Whoever presides at a meeting of the Association may interpret this Constitution and the Regulations made under it for the purposes of the meeting, and the Secretary may interpret them at any other time.
 3. A motion of dissent from an interpretation of this Constitution may be carried only by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting at a meeting of the Collective, or by a simple majority of the Executive at any other time.
 4. If there are any irregularities or uncertainties within this Constitution, refer to the ANUSA Constitution.

Section 4: Objectives and Aims

1. The ANUSA BIPOC Department aims to be a space for BIPOC identifying people to unite and overcome adversity in the context of living in a country where whiteness is taken as the norm – where it is the face of authority, of academia, of professionalism, and of beauty.
2. The objects of the ANUSA BIPOC Department are:
 - a. To establish a safe, inclusive and autonomous space for members to share experiences of racism and intersecting issues, and to get peer support;

- b. To support and defend members who face exclusion, discrimination and hatred in classrooms, administration, employment and other campus or student organisations;
- c. To provide members with an active collective body by which they are empowered and supported to address racism and intersecting issues both on and off campus;
- d. To educate the wider university body through discourse and campaigns which highlight systematic oppression and racism which still exists on our campus;
- e. To form networks and collaborate with like-minded university bodies and student collectives to effectively and sustainably work towards the eradication of racism and intersecting issues.

Section 5: Membership

1. All members of ANUSA and PARSA who self-identify as Bla(c)k, Indigenous or as People of Colour (as defined by Section 3(1)(g)) are members of the Department.
2. All members shall have voting rights at all meetings of the BIPOC Collective.
 - a. All voters must be present at the meeting, either in person or through online video.
3. There is no fee for membership for the Department.

Section 6: Meetings

1. The Officer must communicate with the Facebook group once every two weeks during the academic year.
2. The Executive of the Department must meet once a week during the academic year, either:
 - a. Face to face;
 - b. Zoom;
 - c. Telephone;
 - d. Online.
3. Meetings of the Collective will be held a minimum of every two weeks of the academic year, excluding teaching breaks
 - a. Meetings of the Collective are open to all members as defined by Section 5
4. Meeting times will be decided at the first meeting of the Collective of the academic year and may be revised at the first meeting of Semester Two of the academic year.
5. Notice of all Collective meetings must be given, consisting of:

- a. Posting in the Facebook group no later than 24 hours before the date of the meeting. The notice must include the agenda of the meeting and any motion to be made; and
 - b. Advertising the meeting through appropriate ANUSA channels.
6. The first Collective meeting must be chaired by the Officer or a Deputy where possible. At the end of the meeting, the Officer will invite Collective members to chair subsequent meetings of the Collective under a floating chair system.
 - a. If more than one member volunteers, a simple majority will vote to elect the next chair of the meeting.
 - b. A volunteer chair of a Collective meeting cannot chair two consecutive Collective meetings.
 - c. If no one volunteers, the Officer or Deputy will chair the following meeting.
7. All Collective meetings must have minutes, and attendance including names and university ID must be recorded. Records of attendance are to be confidential and are to be released at the discretion of both the Officer and Deputy/Deputies.
8. All official minutes taken from Collective meetings must be made available to a Department member within two academic days upon written request to the Officer or Deputy.
9. The Collective will hold an Annual General Meeting every year in the second semester of the academic year.
10. A member of the Department may call a Collective meeting at any time with the permission of the Officer.
 - a. An unscheduled meeting is not subject to the notice requirements in Section 6(5), however the mailing list must be notified.
 - b. If the Officer refuses to call an unscheduled meeting, this may be overridden by a petition of no less than ten members of the Department and the meeting must be called within 48 hours of the petition being submitted to a Deputy.
11. In order to authorise any motion there must be no less than ten members present at a Collective meeting. If quorum is achieved, all general motions, other than those provided elsewhere in this Constitution, must pass by a simple majority.
 - a. If quorum is not achieved within 10 minutes of the meeting, the meeting may continue for administrative and communication purposes – that is, no substantive decisions, as defined by Section 6(12), may be reached.
 - b. If quorum is lost, it may be regained within 10 minutes.
 - i. If quorum is not regained, the meeting may continue for administrative and communication purposes – that is, no substantive decisions, as defined by Section 6(12), may be reached.
12. Any motion that requires a substantive vote – one that affects the interests and objectives of the department, including but not limited to financials and its existence – by the Officer at an ANUSA meeting (or, where appropriate, the Deputy) will be voted on by the Collective prior to the relevant ANUSA meeting. The vote in the Collective meeting will bind the Officer to vote in the manner the Collective has decided.

Section 7: Executive

1. The BIPOC Department's executive will consist of:
 - a. The BIPOC Officer,
 - b. At least one Deputy Officer (Social)
 - c. At least one Deputy Officer (Advocacy)
 - d. Secretary
 - e. Treasurer
 - f. Publicity Officer
 - g. First Year Representative
 - h. BASC Representative
 - i. Post-Graduate Representative
 - j. Website Designer
2. The Deputies, Secretary, Publicity Officer, First Year Representative, Treasurer, BASC Representative and Post-Graduate Representative must be elected by optional preferential voting.
3. Each Deputy must appoint at least two collective members to form a portfolio committee for the duration of the year. The Executive may appoint more members throughout the year as required and can include, but is not limited to, first year representatives and post-graduate students.

Section 8: The BIPOC Officer

1. The BIPOC Officer is elected in the ANUSA elections in accordance with the ANUSA Constitution and Regulations.
 - a. The Collective will endorse candidate(s) for the position of ANUSA BIPOC Officer for each ANUSA election. This endorsement will be based on previous involvement in the Collective, experience and perceived suitability for the role as judged by a simple majority vote in the meeting prior to the filling deadline.
 - i. Only members who have attended three meetings prior to the endorsement process are eligible to vote in the endorsement process.
 - b. The BIPOC Department opts out of the ANUSA general election and elects to do an internal departmental election for the position of Officer of the Department. This notice is given on a standing basis until withdrawn by a motion of the collective. Candidates must be active members of the department. The BIPOC Department Executive will set the guidelines for the elections two weeks prior to the Officer election, and will operate as preferential voting. In the case of a single candidate, the collective will vote to accept the nomination as a simple majority.

2. The powers and responsibilities of the Officer are as follows:
 - a. The Officer is an advocate for all members of the Department.
 - i. The Officer is responsible for seeking out voices of minority groups so that they are represented within the Department.
 - b. The officer must support the Deputies and the department to facilitate events and campaigns within the academic year.
 - c. The Officer will ensure details relevant to the Department are up to date on the ANUSA Website.
 - d. The Officer will check the Department's email inbox at least twice a week during the Academic Year.
 - e. The Officer must be physically available at ANU to all members through a weekly one-hour time slot during the academic year to be advertised at the beginning of the academic year through both the ANUSA website, newsletter sent to the mailing list, and a separate online presence of the Department.
 - i. This time may be revised at the beginning of Semester Two.
 - ii. If this time slot cannot be adhered to based on an emergency, notice must be given through the Collective mailing list and a Deputy, where available, may stand in their place.
 - f. The Officer must attain the following training before O-week of their term:
 - i. Mental Health First Aid
 - ii. Disclosure training (module)

This training should be financially supported by ANUSA. If the Officer is unable to advocate for this training to be paid for by ANUSA, it should be budgeted into the Department Funding.
3. The Officer must attend all ANUSA meetings required of them in accordance with the ANUSA Constitution. The Officer must consult with the Collective before each meeting on motions that directly concern the Collective, and must represent the will of members as expressed in a simple majority vote. All absences must adhere to the requirements in the ANUSA Constitution and Regulations. The Officer may assign a proxy in accordance with the ANUSA Constitution.
4. Failure by the Officer to meet attendance requirements in the ANUSA Constitution and Regulations for ANUSA meetings or otherwise acted contrary to the terms of the ANUSA Constitution and Regulations may result in their removal.
5. If the Officer has been removed or has resigned under the conditions outlined in the ANUSA Constitution, or the position is vacant, a temporary replacement must be voted in at the upcoming meeting of the Collective by the voting procedure in Section 6(11) and Section 7(2).

- a. If quorum is not achieved at the meeting, a temporary replacement will be elected by a simple majority of those present.
 - b. The temporary replacement is subject to all the relevant duties of the position and holds office until the next meeting.
6. A removed Officer reserves the right to appeal to the Disputes Committee, in accordance with the ANUSA Constitution and Regulations. If the Officer elects to do this, they must appeal their removal within seven days of being removed from office.
 - a. If no appeal to the Disputes Committee is made by the removed Officer within seven days, or an appeal to the Disputes Committee is unsuccessful, the temporary replacement formally replaces the Officer and is subject to all the relevant duties of the position.
 - b. If an appeal to the Disputes Committee is successful by the removed Officer, the temporary replacement is automatically removed and the removed Officer is reinstated and is subject to all the relevant duties of the position.

Section 9: Deputy Officer Advocacy

1. At least one Deputy, with provision for a second Deputy, is to be elected at the first collective meeting after the election of the officer, following a required self-nomination.
 - a. The Executive shall have the discretion to accept nominations for the position of Deputy Officer Advocacy for as long as deemed appropriate, provided that the nomination period remains open for a minimum of one week.
 - b. Nominations will not be accepted after they are closed, except:
 - i. In cases of emergency as defined by Section 2, which will be decided by a simple majority vote at the second Collective meeting of the academic year.
 - ii. If a motion to allow the nomination is passed by a two-thirds majority at the second Collective meeting of the academic year.
 - c. Nominations will be accepted by the Officer.
 - d. If there is only one nominee, there will be a vote to accept the nomination and nominations for a second Deputy will be reopened after a simple majority vote.
 - e. The position of a second Deputy may be opened by a simple majority vote at the first Collective meeting of the year, however if this vote fails, the position can be opened by a simple majority vote at the first Collective meeting of the second semester.
 - f. Elections will be carried out sequentially with all nominees who are not elected in the first round of elections for Deputy eligible for the second round of elections for Deputy.
