I'm a self-taught graphic designer with 2+ years of freelancing experience creating designs for both digital and print. I've worked on brand identities, marketing creatives, social media visuals, and presentation decks, always focusing on making ideas look clear, engaging, and easy to understand. I'm comfortable collaborating with different teams while adapting quickly to new challenges. I'm excited to join a creative team where I can learn structured workflows, contribute bold ideas, and grow alongside other passionate folks.
