

GUS MARTZ

Animation & Motion Graphics

I create animation and motion graphics that bring clarity, energy, and polish to your message. From branded visuals and explainer content to sermon visuals, screen graphics, LED content, and promotional animation, each piece is designed to communicate with impact.

My approach combines strong design, visual rhythm, and production awareness to create motion that feels intentional, engaging, and built for the platform where it will be seen.

Why Work With Me

Clear Visual Communication

I design motion graphics that simplify ideas, guide the viewer, and make content easier to understand.

Branded Motion Design

From clean brand animation to cinematic graphic sequences, I create visuals that elevate the presentation and strengthen your identity.

Built for Screens, Social, and Events

I create motion content for social media, videos, presentations, LED walls, and live environments so the visuals work where they matter most.

Benefits of My Services

01. Stronger Visual Communication

- I use motion to simplify ideas and help your audience understand information more quickly.
- Clear visual support makes your message more engaging and easier to remember.

02. More Polished Brand Presentation

- Well-designed animation gives your content a more refined, professional, and high-value feel.
- I create branded motion that helps your visuals feel cohesive and elevated.

03. Content That Captures Attention

- Movement naturally draws the eye and helps keep viewers engaged.
- I design motion with rhythm, pacing, and intention so it adds energy without losing clarity.

04. Flexible for Multiple Uses

- Motion graphics can be built for social media, events, presentations, videos, LED walls, and campaigns.
- Each piece is designed for the format, screen, and environment where it will be seen.

05. Built to Match the Production

- Animation should support the larger piece, not feel disconnected from it.
- I design motion graphics that fit the tone, style, and purpose of the production so everything feels intentional.

Let's bring your visuals to life.
