

Summation Quotes

October 2025

Ian Wong, CEO, Summation

"Executives are often forced to decide with partial visibility. Human teams can examine dozens of hypotheses; Summation evaluates thousands in parallel and in real time. The result is a fundamentally different way to run a business—one that continuously sees what others miss."

Andrew Low Ah Kee, CEO, Fanatics Commerce

"Summation plays a valuable role in how we run Fanatics Commerce. Analyses that once took weeks now happen instantly. Even better, AI is helping us get to questions we couldn't easily answer before—doing so in a way our teams can trust—so we can move faster and make smarter decisions"

Chetan Puttagunta, Benchmark

"Every major technology wave has required a rethink of enterprise infrastructure. Summation is that rethink for the AI era—surfacing insights and answering strategic questions that even the best analysts miss."

Josh Coyne, Kleiner Perkins

"Executives need not just AI, but AI they can depend on. Summation's AI platform delivers clarity with the confidence to act."
