WEBSITE DISCLAIMER

Effective Date: July 2026

I. General Information

The information provided on this website is for general informational purposes only. While North Texas Air Solutions LLC strives to keep information accurate and up to date, we make no representations or warranties regarding the completeness, accuracy, reliability, suitability, or availability of any information, services, pricing, images, project descriptions, or content presented on this website.

Use of this website does not create a contractor-client relationship, service agreement, warranty, or binding obligation unless a separate written estimate, proposal, work order, contract, or invoice is approved by North Texas Air Solutions LLC and the customer.

II. Estimates and Pricing

Any pricing, estimates, service descriptions, membership pricing, promotions, or project timelines displayed on this website are provided for general informational purposes only and do not constitute a binding quote or contractual agreement.

Final pricing may vary based on site conditions, equipment requirements, accessibility, system type, labor, material availability, permit requirements, code requirements, manufacturer specifications, and other project-specific factors. A final written estimate or proposal must be approved before work is scheduled or performed.

III. Service Availability

Service areas, appointment availability, response times, scheduling, and technician availability may vary based on location, seasonality, weather conditions, demand, parts availability, supplier lead times, and workload. North Texas Air Solutions LLC reserves the right to modify, suspend, or discontinue services at any time without prior notice.

IV. No Emergency Service Guarantee

While North Texas Air Solutions LLC makes reasonable efforts to respond quickly to service requests, website content does not guarantee same-day service, emergency availability, specific appointment times, or repair completion within a specific timeframe.

Emergency or after-hours service availability may be limited and may be subject to additional terms, scheduling approval, technician availability, and applicable service charges unless otherwise stated in writing.

V. Technical Information

Information related to HVAC systems, maintenance recommendations, indoor air quality, equipment performance, energy savings, repair guidance, system sizing, or troubleshooting is intended as general information only and should not be considered professional engineering, construction, design, or technical advice specific to any property.

HVAC recommendations may vary depending on the age, condition, installation, design, configuration, maintenance history, and operating environment of each system. Customers should schedule a professional evaluation before relying on website information for decisions related to repairs, replacements, installations, safety, or system performance.

VI. Membership and Promotional Information

Any Comfort Care membership benefits, discounts, promotions, priority service claims, or special offers displayed on this website are subject to availability, active membership status, written program terms, and approval by North Texas Air Solutions LLC.

Membership benefits do not cover all repairs, parts, equipment, refrigerant, drain clogs, customer-supplied parts, emergency work, after-hours work, pre-existing conditions, manufacturer defects, system design issues, or conditions outside the stated membership scope unless specifically included in writing.

North Texas Air Solutions LLC may update, modify, limit, or discontinue membership benefits, promotions, or special offers in accordance with applicable program terms.

VII. Financing Information

Financing information displayed on this website is for general informational purposes only. Financing is subject to third-party approval, lender terms, credit review, program availability, and applicable disclosures. North Texas Air Solutions LLC does not guarantee financing approval, interest rates, payment terms, or lender decisions.

VIII. Project Photos and Examples

Photos, videos, project descriptions, before-and-after images, equipment examples, and portfolio items shown on this website are for general informational and marketing purposes only. Results, equipment, pricing, installation requirements, project conditions, and timelines may vary.

Displayed projects do not guarantee identical results for every customer or property. North Texas Air Solutions LLC makes reasonable efforts to avoid displaying private, confidential, or personally identifiable information without appropriate authorization.

IX. Employment Opportunities

Job openings and employment opportunities listed on this website are subject to change without notice. Submission of an employment application does not guarantee employment, an interview, or future consideration. North Texas Air Solutions LLC reserves the right to modify hiring requirements, qualifications, compensation, and job availability at its sole discretion.

X. Third-Party Websites and Platforms

This website may contain links to third-party websites, platforms, payment portals, financing providers, manufacturers, social media pages, or other services. North Texas Air Solutions LLC is not responsible for the content, policies, availability, security, or practices of any third-party websites or platforms.

Customers should review the terms and privacy policies of any third-party websites or services they choose to use.

XI. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, North Texas Air Solutions LLC shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, special, or punitive damages arising from the use of, or reliance upon, information contained on this website.

Users assume full responsibility for any actions taken based on information obtained through this website. Nothing on this website modifies or overrides the terms of any written estimate, invoice, service agreement, membership agreement, warranty document, or signed contract issued by North Texas Air Solutions LLC.
