ROOM

VENUE

Sioux Falls
Convention Center

Your strongest people are the least likely to tell you they're running on empty.

Send seven of them to a room built to do something about it — and put your name in front of 200 leaders from this community, while every dollar above cost goes to a Sioux Falls recovery nonprofit.

THE SPONSOR TIER

Community Partner

$1,000

One tier. One price. Includes a reserved table for seven — a $350 value — plus priority seating at the front of the room.

01 Your people

Seven team members return with a personal behavioral game plan and shared language — not a notebook they'll never open.

02 Your brand

Recognized from the stage, in print, on signage, across social and on digital materials — in front of the whole room.

03 Your community

100% of net proceeds to The Grateful Homie Project. Not a percentage — everything above the cost of the day.

WHAT YOUR TEAM WALKS INTO

Not a conference of keynotes and coffee breaks.

A structured, neuroscience-backed day of breakthroughs, behavioral tools and genuine human connection. Round tables of seven. By 4:00, they won't be strangers.

01

Clarity

Cut through noise. Leave knowing exactly what matters and what's next.

02

Ownership

Name what you control. Stop waiting for conditions to improve.

03

Courage

Have the hard conversation. Make the real decision — in the room.

04

Collective

Build micro-cultures worth belonging to — starting with your team.

05

Energy

Move from reactive depletion to intentional renewal. Show up fully.

The Outcome

One real move

Every person leaves with a first concrete step — not a packet.

“A better community is made up of better individuals and better organizations. When one person changes how they show up, it ripples.”

THE CAUSE · THE GRATEFUL HOMIE PROJECT

South Dakota ranks 3rd worst in the nation for incarceration per capita.

A root cause — of both the justice impact and our growing houseless population — is addiction. For the longest time, Sioux Falls had no grassroots, peer-led recovery community to meet that need.

~15

Weekly classes — all voluntary, all peer-led, zero barriers

150+

People served weekly, navigating recovery and reentry

100%

Of net proceeds from this event go to their work

That changed when Vanessa and Corey — both having walked through addiction themselves — signed a lease without a long-term plan and simply opened their doors. The three pillars for climbing out of the justice system are housing, employment and community. They're building the community piece — the one that makes everything else possible.

We cover our costs. Everything above that goes to the cause.

No one is asked to trust a percentage. Event revenue first covers venue and operating costs, and every dollar above that goes directly to The Grateful Homie Project. That's the whole arrangement — and it's why we kept sponsorship to a single tier with no overhead to feed.
