

SURPRISE TRIP

SECRET ITINERARY TRIP

2nd to 4th OCT

STARTS FROM DELHI

NOTE FROM THE FOUNDER

No endless research.
No overthinking.
No checking Google Maps every five minutes.
No “I’ve already seen this place on Instagram.”

Just the excitement of saying yes to something you’ve never experienced before.

That’s exactly what this trip is.

We know where we’re going.
We’ve personally planned every detail.
We’ve carefully curated every experience.

But we’re keeping it a surprise.

Because sometimes, the most beautiful journeys begin when we stop trying to control every single moment.

All we’re asking from you is one thing:

Come with an open mind.

We’ll take care of the rest.

I genuinely can’t wait to see the look on your faces when the surprise finally unfolds.

See you on the other side of adventure.

With love,
Kajal

A Little Leap Into The Unknown 🧡

If you’ve travelled with Firgun before, you already know this.

Our best memories have never come from the places we visited.

They came from the people we met, the conversations that lasted till 3 a.m., the unexpected detours, the uncontrollable laughter, the moments that couldn’t have been planned, and the feeling of returning home with strangers who somehow became family.

So this time, we thought...

What if we removed the one thing we all obsess over before booking a trip?

The itinerary.

WHY A SURPRISE TRIP?

Let's be honest.

Most of us travel the same way.

We search for the "Top 10 Places to Visit."

We watch reels.

We save Instagram posts.

We read blogs.

We compare itineraries.

And before we even leave home...we already know exactly what we're going to see.

Somewhere along the way, travel stopped feeling like an adventure and started feeling like a checklist.

We wanted to change that.

This isn't a trip where you'll chase famous landmarks or stand in queues for "must-visit" photo spots.

Instead, we're taking you somewhere beautifully offbeat, somewhere most people wouldn't think of travelling on their own, but a place that completely deserves to be experienced.

Think Conversations with locals.

Unexpected viewpoints.

Little cafés, slow mornings, spontaneous plans, and stories you'll never find on Google.

No pressure to tick boxes.

Just the joy of discovering.

The destination will remain a surprise until it's time.

But here's what we can promise:

A thoughtfully curated experience.

An offbeat location.

A small group of like-minded travellers.

Plenty of surprises along the way.

Memories you'll want to relive long after the trip ends.

Because the best adventures aren't always the ones we plan.

Sometimes, they're the ones we simply trust.

So if you're someone who believes the best stories begin with a little uncertainty...

Welcome aboard.

Let's surprise you.

Hidden Himalayas

May 2026 • Solo

Had always been wanting to do an unplanned trip and as soon as Firgun put this one up I just had to go for it. No plans, no itinerary, taking each day as it comes was too exciting.

The trip started off from Pulga, Tulga and Kalga village. We stayed at an amazing property in Tulga with just nature all around us. Enjoying each others company, getting to know each other, playing games, listening to music, bonfire, waterfalls (lost phone and found phones :D). It was the perfect start one could have asked for.

From there we headed to Shangarh. The meadows were vast and stunning. Just sitting there in silence and soaking in the views was a splendid experience. Played frisbee, made some reels, drone shots and much more.

However, more than the destinations the RAWness of the trip is what stood out, the unplanned days, the conversations, the random dance mornings, the uncontrollable laughters, the variety of games, the group bonding made the trip one to remember.

Special mention to Kajal for putting this trip together and being the silent leader on the trip so as to ensure that everyone had a great time :)

My First with Firgun :p

Jan 2026 • Solo

I recently joined Firgun for a new year's trip to Georgia, and it was hands-down one of the most transformative travel experiences I've ever had. Firgun has a literal 'magic touch' for bringing people together; what started as a group of strangers quickly felt like a tight-knit family.

Our guide, Kajal, was the heart of the trip. Her energy, warmth, and genuine passion for travel made everyone feel at home immediately. She didn't just lead the way; she was like a friend who happened to know all the best secrets of Georgia.

The timing of the trip couldn't have been more cinematic. We were met with some of the most intense, beautiful snowfall I've ever seen. While that much snow might have derailed a less experienced company, Kajal and the Firgun team handled it with total expertise. We were met with a snowstorm on our way to Gadauri where we were unable to reach our hotel because of the conditions, the team and Kajal booked a hotel nearby and sorted the much needed stay for the night, and all of us made the most of the unplanned night. Probably was the most memorable night of our trip with a lot of fun and bonding. Whether we were navigating mountain roads that looked like a scene from Narnia or finding the perfect cozy spot to escape the cold, the logistics were seamless.

The highlights were undoubtedly the evenings. There is nothing quite like sharing a massive, steaming plate of food and local wine while watching the snow pile up outside the window. We spent hours talking, laughing, and bonding over the shared adventure.

If you're looking for a company that doesn't just show you a destination, but creates a community and handles the unexpected with grace, I cannot recommend Firgun enough. I came home with incredible photos, but more importantly, a new group of friends and a deep love for Georgia. I'd do it all over again in a heartbeat!

Blind Date with Firgun ❤️

Oct 2023 • Solo

Recently, I embarked on a thrilling surprise trip, not knowing where I was headed until the very moment of arrival. The excitement and anticipation throughout the journey were truly unforgettable. When the destination was finally unveiled, it felt like an adventure straight out of a movie. The element of surprise added a sense of mystery and adventure to the entire experience.

This unexpected trip was a terrific way to get out of the ordinary and try something different. It reminded me of the fun of being spontaneous and the wonder of discovering new locations without preconceived assumptions. The experiences made on this journey will definitely be treasured for the rest of one's life.
