Personal interests

I am passionate about movies, cinema, animation, VFX and videogames.

Sports are also one of my greatest passions. I am a huge football and American football fan, and I love to go trekking and running, as I am training for running half marathons and marathons.

In my free time, I also love to improve my skills and learn how to use new creative softwares.

I love food and tasting typical dishes from every country, which is why I also love travelling for discovering new places, new cultures and new dishes.
