Wednesday 26th and Thursday 27th August 2026

Join us at Annata for an immersive five-course wine dinner called Rooted in France when we explore a simple idea that runs through every serious French vineyard: how and where a vine is grown decides what ends up in the glass! We will taste the "Je ne sais quoi" of French terroir by sampling ten delicious wines grown Méthode Française together with a fabulous French inspired menu curated by Annata's Executive Chef Jordon Garcia. We will learn how the flavours are influenced by the soil, viticulture methods, climate, and traditions of French winemaking guided throughout by French language and wine expert, Ian Barr. This event will be held over two special evenings – Wednesday 26th and Thursday 27th August 2026.

The evening opens with J. Lassalle's Champagne Brut Rose, a fourth-generation grower house built on fifty-year-old vines and indigenous yeast fermentation. The whites move through the Loire's Muscadet, Alsace's Pinot Gris and the high, mineral slopes of Chablis, before Burgundy proper arrives with Tollot-Beaut's single-vineyard Savigny-les-Beaune Monopole. Mornington Peninsula's Elanto Vineyard, planted at Burgundian density, stands alongside its French counterparts through both the Chardonnay and Pinot Noir courses - a direct answer to the same question, asked six thousand kilometres away. The reds close through Gigondas and a Saint-Emilion from Chateau La Gaffeliere, before a Muscat de Beaumes-de-Venise brings the evening to its sweet finish.

Dates: Wednesday 26th & Thursday 27th August

Commencing at 7:00pm

Price: $250 per person

$225 per person for Annata Wine Lovers members

*All-inclusive of ten wines and five-course French-inspired degustation
All Dietary Requirements will be met. Bookings are essential.*

PREMIUM WINES

BY THE 150 ml GLASS & HALF BOTTLE

2021 Domaine Ventoura Fourchaume Chablis Premier Cru, France

$37 glass or $83.50 half bottle

Thomas Ventoura represents the third generation of this Chablis family estate, building on foundations established by his grandfather in 1953 and developed by his father. Pale straw with green reflections. The nose shows lifted citrus, green apple and white peach, layered with chalk, oyster shell and subtle hazelnut and brioche notes from lees ageing. The palate is precise and mineral-driven; flavours of lemon, saline and stone fruit are supported by vibrant acidity and a fine, textured mouthfeel. There is both breadth and freshness, with a long, focused finish showing flinty complexity and persistence.

2019 Levantine Hill Katherine's Paddock Chardonnay, Yarra Valley, VIC

$41 glass or $92.00 half bottle

A single-block flagship from one of the Yarra Valley's most ambitious estates, this Chardonnay is produced in tiny quantities from a specific named paddock. Deep gold with developing complexity. Aromas of ripe stone fruit, toasted hazelnut, lemon curd, vanilla cream and a fine mineral thread. The palate is full and generously textured with excellent natural acidity providing focus and length. Five years of bottle age have brought seamless integration and the savoury complexity that distinguishes great Yarra Chardonnay from anything merely good.

2020 Chateau de Marsannay Les Favieres, Marsannay AOC

$42 glass or $94.00 half bottle

Deep ruby-red, the wine has intense aromas of ripe red and black cherries, bramble, forest undergrowth, spice and a hint of warm oak. The palate is full-bodied, offering dense layers of fruit framed by firm, yet refined tannins. Layered spice and subtle earthiness weave through, with a long, persistent finish. Grapes are hand-harvested and fermentation uses a mix of whole-bunch and destemmed fruit, with maceration lasting 12–13 days to extract balanced phenolics. Aging occurs for 13 months in 40% new oak barrels followed by three months in tank prior to bottling. Simply divine!

2019 Domaines Comte de Malet de Roquefort Château Armens, Saint-Emilion

$36 glass or $80.00 half bottle

The Malet Roquefort family has been in Saint-Emilion since 1705, one of the appellation's oldest wine dynasties. Deep ruby-red with purple highlights. The nose shows ripe blackcurrant, blackberry and plum with liquorice, sweet spice and integrated oak. The palate is full and structured with silky, polished tannins, and fine balance between concentration and freshness. Long, fruit-driven finish with lingering spice. The Winemaker is Alexandre de Malet Roquefort appointed consulting oenologist Stéphane Derenoncourt, one of Bordeaux's most celebrated advisors. A beautiful Bordeaux.

2022 Tyrrell's Winemaker's Selection Vat 9 Shiraz, Hunter Valley NSW

$39 glass or $89.50 half bottle

The winemaker is Andrew Spinazee. The family dynasty is now led by Chris Tyrrell. Together, they uphold the family's fifth-generation legacy. The nose shows concentrated blood plum, mulberry and dark berries, lifted by crushed sage, cracked cacao and subtle earthy spice. The palate is generously textured yet balanced, with ripe dark fruit flavours framed by fine tannins and fresh acidity. Savoury notes of wet earth, spice and a hint of pepper. Oak influence is subtle, providing supporting structure and length. The finish is long and composed. A very classy Hunter Valley icon.
