FOREST
WINDS

Where every acre holds space, silence, and promise.

Where Nature Defines the Land

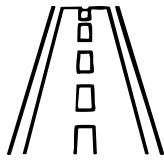

Set beside the expansive Basireddypally Forest, this is land that exists in quiet continuity with nature. Open, undisturbed, and deeply connected to its surroundings, it offers a rare sense of space that is becoming increasingly scarce.

The land stretches alongside over 1100 acres of forest, creating a natural boundary that cannot be replicated. Here, ownership is defined not just by the plot itself, but by everything that surrounds it.

Life moves at a gentler pace here.

A slower rhythm defines life here, where mornings begin in stillness, days unfold across open land, and evenings settle into quiet green surroundings. Every moment feels unhurried, shaped by space, calm, and a sense of ease.

Here, time moves gently, inviting you to pause, breathe deeper, and stay a little longer. In the quiet openness, living feels more present, more grounded, and effortlessly complete.

Connected to Growth. Surrounded by Nature.

Located in Somangurthy near Pargi, 259 Forest Winds enjoys the rare advantage of accessibility without compromise.

Positioned within reach of expanding growth corridors and improving road networks, it remains protected by its natural surroundings and calm setting.

Away from the density of the city, yet connected to its future. The location offers the balance of convenience, openness, and enduring environmental value that modern ownership seeks.

A New Beginning

We don't just offer a place to own, but an opportunity to live closer to nature. With open green spaces, peaceful surroundings, and room to create your own retreat, it is designed for moments with family, gatherings with friends, and a life that feels fuller and freer.

Within Easy Reach

Well connected through growing infrastructure, the project brings the city closer than ever before. The upcoming highway linking Manneguda Junction to Appa Junction is expected to reduce travel time by 25–30 minutes, offering faster access without compromising peace. An ideal weekend retreat today, and a serene haven for the years ahead.

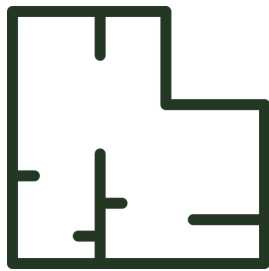

Land That Holds Its Worth

Some land offers ownership.
Rare land offers lasting value.

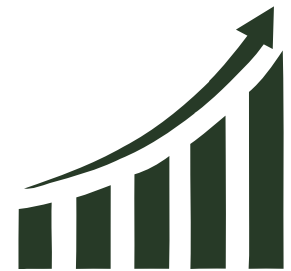

Forest Adjacency

Set beside protected forest land, the project enjoys a rare natural edge of greenery, privacy, and uninterrupted views. A setting where nature remains a lasting part of ownership.

Planned Layout

Thoughtfully designed with low density planning, wide internal roads, and clear plot divisions that create openness, ease of movement, and long term usability.

Long Term Value

A rare combination of location, natural surroundings, and structured development creating land that offers both present enjoyment and enduring appreciation.

Own Beside the Forest

Build with time.
Live with space.
Grow with clarity.
