Collection and Use of Images and Stories – School Excursions

The Sisters of Compassion collect photographs, stories, and other recorded materials to help share and promote our charitable work, mission, and activities.

This may include images, recordings, or written material created during your school's excursion and may be used on our:

- websites and social media channels
- printed publications and promotional materials
- appeal campaigns and fundraising communications
- Heritage Centre displays
- communications supporting the Cause of Venerable Suzanne Aubert

Consent

By signing below, I confirm that I am a teacher, school representative, or other authorised adult acting on behalf of the school and the participating students. I confirm that I have authority to provide this consent on behalf of the school and, where required, on behalf of the students' parents or caregivers.

I give consent for the Sisters of Compassion Group to collect, use, and store this material in accordance with the Privacy Act 2020, and only for the purposes outlined above. I understand that the material will be used respectfully and safely, and that reasonable steps will be taken to protect the privacy, dignity, and wellbeing of the students

I understand that:

- Participation is voluntary, and no student is required to be photographed or recorded.
- The Sisters of Compassion Group will take reasonable steps to ensure that materials are used respectfully and appropriately.
- Personal information will be stored securely and only retained for as long as it is needed for the above purposes.
- I may request that specific images or content be withdrawn from future use by contacting the Sisters of Compassion.
- No payment or compensation will be provided for participation or consent.

I acknowledge that I will not make any claims against the Sisters of Compassion Group in relation to the authorised use of these materials.
