

SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS

Part 2 - What's He Saying?

Pastor Tom Kang

Icebreaker: Go around and write down one specific question that you have for God. Have each person take a turn sharing their question with the group.

1) T.S. Eliot said, “Oh my soul ... be prepared for him who knows how to ask questions.”

If God was to ask you one question, what do you think He might ask you? What does this reveal to you about your relationship with God? Discuss the role of questions in your personal growth and faith development.

2) Why do you think Jesus uses questions to engage with people in the Gospels, particularly in Mark? Reflect on the difference between gaining information and deepening relationships through questions.

3) How does Jesus' question in Mark 2:25, “Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need?” challenge the Pharisees' understanding of the law? Discuss the importance of context and human need in interpreting religious laws.

4) Jesus asks in Mark 3:4, “Which is lawful on the Sabbath: to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?” Why do you think the Pharisees remained silent in response? Consider the tension between the letter of the law and the spirit of the law.

5) In today's sermon, we see that Jesus is the Savior who forgives sins, and Lord even of the Sabbath. How do these statements about Jesus have an impact on you?
