2025 - FEAR OF GOD FOR A FEARLESS FAITHFUL LIVING

Greetings in the name of Jesus. When we look back into our lives, amidst all the challenges and hindrances, wars and calamities, indeed year 2024 was a year to be remembered. As the song goes,

"Count your blessings, name them one by one, and it will surprise you, what the Lord has done."

The Advent season has just passed. Looking back at every heavenly announcement, 'being fearless', was pronounced vividly by the Angel to every character of the first Christmas. Starting with Zechariah (Luke 1:13), then Mary (Luke 1:30), Joseph (Matt. 1:20) and finally the Shepherds (Luke 2:10). This 'Fear' came from an Old Testament understanding that anyone who 'Sees' or 'witnesses' God or heavenly host, will eventually die. (Ex. 33:20; Gen 32:30). The New Testament narrative, overwrites this with a redemptive understanding. Redemption never kills, it only saves and gives life and who better than son of God, Jesus.

God of Life and Salvation is inviting us into year 2025 to be 'Fearless'. In this age of Ghar Wapsi, mob lynching and an induced and created fear of being part of a minority community, how can we be fearless?

Jesus' earthly family is a great teaching for all of us to be fearless.

1. Mary's Submission - The moment she knew God's in Control, she gave in to God's plan. (Luke 1:38)
2. Joseph's Selflessness - He took Mary as his Wife to fulfill God's plan, though it wasn't to his personal benefit. (Matt. 1:24-25)
3. Jesus' Serenity - The Peace in the manger where the baby is kept is an ideal space to preach and practice Salvation. Thus, highlighting God's preference, that is, the lost and the least. (Luke 2:7-20, 5:32)

When we fear God, we are not controlled by fear of people, circumstances or the unknown. Instead we are empowered to live courageously, without any pretence or expectations, knowing that God is our Rock and Refuge. St. Paul in 2 Timothy 1:7 says, "for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control." (ESV)

In this blessed country of ours, we are called to fearlessly live a witnessing life of Submission to God, Selflessness towards fellow beings and a hope of Serenity across the whole world. Praying for all the families in my church and wishing you all a blessed year 2025.

Dearly Beloved,

As I write to you in the capacity of the Asst. Vicar of your parish, for the first and the last time, my family and me express deep gratitude to all the members of the Madras Mar Thoma Syrian Church, Chetpet.

With folded hands before the Triune God who led us through this past one year.

For the Achens and their families, Rev. Vinoy Daniel Achen, Neena Kochamma, Evin & Vineeth, Rev. Sanju Varughese Achen, Tindu Kochamma, Nathu and Nemuz, who loved, cared and led us, gratitude.

For the Church Officer Bearers and Executive Committee members, Koinonia Editorial Board, Jasmine, Reevathi, Naresh, Roy and Anand, who worked hand in hand to enable us fulfil God's entrusted task, gratitude.

For all those who made me a better person through constructive criticisms, gratitude.

For all who remembered us in prayers, gratitude.

I close here with a phrase which Rev. Katherine Paisley said to her children when she dropped them off at school one day. I thought these words fit in perfectly with my emotions as we move on in our Ministry for God.

"Remember who you are. Be a witness!"

Rev. Noble Abraham

Genesis 3:15

— The Promise of Redemption

- Devotion by Akash Thomas Cherian,
Aminjikarai Prayer Group

Scripture:

"And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel."

- Genesis 3:15 (NIV)

As we enter a new year, we are reminded of the profound hope found in the very beginning of Scripture, in Genesis 3:15. In the midst of the fall of humanity, when sin and brokenness entered the world, God spoke a promise of redemption: "I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel." This verse, often referred to as the "Protoevangelium" or first gospel, offers a glimpse of God's ultimate plan for salvation through Jesus Christ, who would triumph over sin and evil.

Adam and Eve, created in perfection, chose to disobey God's command. As a result, sin and death entered the world, and the relationship between God and humanity was broken. But even in the midst of judgment, God shows grace.

The verse is addressed to the serpent which is Satan. The "offspring" of the woman refers to a future descendant—Jesus Christ—who will come to defeat the serpent, the evil one, once and for all.

The key to understanding this promise lies in the phrase:

"He will crush your head, and you will strike his heel."

This is a foreshadowing of Christ's victory over Satan. Jesus, through His death and resurrection, would deliver a mortal blow to Satan's power, crushing his head. Satan's strike on Jesus' heel refers to His crucifixion—a painful, temporary wound—but in the end, it would not stop God's plan of redemption. Jesus' victory on the cross would break the power of sin and death forever.

So What Does This Mean for Us Today?

1. It Gives Us A Hope in the Promise of Victory:

From the very beginning, God promised that evil would not have the final word. When we face trials, temptation, or suffering, we can remember that God has already declared victory over evil through Christ. Christ has won, and we share in that victory as His followers.

2. It Means That The Battle is Real, but We Are Not Alone:

We experience spiritual warfare as we resist temptation and fight against the forces of evil in our lives. Christ has given us His Spirit to empower us in the battle. We are not fighting in our own strength, but in His.

3. This Is A Call to Faith and To Trust in God's Plan:

This verse reminds us that God had a plan for redemption from the moment sin entered the world. Even when things seem hopeless, we can trust that God is sovereign and that His plan is good. As we reflect on this Christmas season, let us remember that God's promise of redemption began long before the stable in Bethlehem. We have the assurance that the hope He promised in Genesis has come to us in Jesus.

We must always remember that we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

As we reflect on this promise, we can embrace the new year with the assurance that God's redemptive work is still unfolding in our lives and in the world. Let this inspire us to move forward into the new year with confidence in God's victory and a renewed commitment to live out His purpose in our lives.

DAVID WAS A SHEPHERD BOY

KID'S
CORNER

During the days of King Saul and the prophet Samuel, there lived a young boy named David, who would one day become one of the most beloved figures in biblical history. David lived in the small town of Bethlehem with his father, Jesse, and his seven older brothers. His three eldest brothers served as soldiers in King Saul's army, while David remained at home to help his father. Although he was the youngest, David played an important role in the family, taking responsibility for the care of their sheep. In those times, shepherds were tasked with guiding their flocks from one pasture to another to ensure the sheep had fresh grass to graze on and clean water to drink.

David's life as a shepherd was not without challenges. Often, the sheep would wander far from home, and David would stay with them, spending many nights on the hillsides under the open sky. These nights, illuminated by the soft glow of the moon and the countless stars, likely filled David with awe for the beauty of the world God had created. It was during these peaceful hours that David's creative spirit blossomed. He may have sat quietly, strumming his harp and crafting songs that reflected his thoughts, emotions, and faith in God. These moments of solitude shaped David, not only as a shepherd but also as a poet and musician.

Being a shepherd was not just about guiding and feeding the flock; it was also about protecting them. David faced dangerous situations that would test his courage and strength. Once, a lion seized one of his sheep and carried it off. Without hesitation, David chased after the lion, and through God's strength, he managed to rescue the sheep. On another occasion, he confronted a bear that threatened his flock. With unwavering faith and determination, David struck and killed the bear, safeguarding his sheep. These encounters were no small feats for a young boy, but they demonstrated David's bravery and his trust in God's help.

David's love for God was the foundation of his character. His faith gave him the courage to face daunting challenges and the resilience to overcome them. In return, God blessed David with the strength to protect his flock and the wisdom to nurture his talents. These early experiences, full of quiet reflection, courageous acts, and unwavering devotion, laid the groundwork for the extraordinary life that David would lead.
