Pt I Line 2: SJW examines the terms and conditions of each grant, including provisions on permissible funding sources, and ensures the proposed funding source aligns with these specifications. SJW uses a financial reporting system that identifies and allocates program expenditure to specific grants, using Class as an identifier. SJW maintains separate records for each source of funding, meticulously tracking all expenses and reimbursements. Cross-checking funding sources before initiating any expenditure is essential to avoid using the same funds for multiple purposes. Additionally, we keep detailed invoices, receipts, and documentation for all expenses

Pt VI, Line 11b: The Form 990 is prepared by an independent accounting firm and reviewed by the finance committee.

Pt VI, Line 12c: The written conflict of interest policy covers the board of directors, members, board committee members and key employees. Determination of whether a conflict may exist is made by the board president and the executive director. The possible conflict is reviewed for disposition by the executive committee of the board of directors. Board members, committee members and key employees are required to annually complete the organization's conflict of interest disclosure statement and disclose all potential conflicts to the executive director or board president. Actual or apparent conflicts of interest that may arise during the year are to be immediately reported to the executive director or board president. Should a perceived conflict of interest present itself, the executive committee will review the potential conflict and determine if further action or restriction is required in order to ensure the conflict does not interfere with the performance of the members' or key employees' duties to the organization, or result in personal financial, professional, or political gain on the part of such persons at the expense of the organization, its supporters or stakeholders.

Pt VI, Line 15a: The Executive Director meets with the board president annually to review prior year performance and establish future goals. This information is shared with the board of directors for deliberation and decision making purposes regarding compensation adjustments. The decision is contemporaneously documented in the minutes of the board of directors meeting. Compensation is determined based on market values for key leadership positions.

Pt VI, Line 19: The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements available to the general public upon request.
