SHORT BIO · AS OF NOVEMBER 2026

Martin Moszkowicz

Producer · President, Zurich Film Festival

Martin Moszkowicz is a film producer and the managing director of Transcontinental Entertainment Studios (TES) in Munich. Since July 2026 he has been President of the Zurich Film Festival. He has been responsible for more than 300 film and television productions, among them the Resident Evil franchise, the Fack ju Göhte trilogy, Downfall, Perfume, The Baader Meinhof Complex, Nowhere in Africa, winner of the Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film, and September 5 by Tim Fehlbaum. From 2014 to February 2024 he was chairman of the executive board of Constantin Film. He has received the CinemaCon Career Achievement in Film Award, Variety's Billion Dollar Producer Award in honor of his commercial and international impact in the film industry and the Carl Laemmle Producer Award and has been an honorary professor at HFF Munich since 2019. Born in 1958, he works in Munich and Los Angeles.

Transcontinental Entertainment Studios GmbH · Agnesstrasse 10 · 80798 München · info@moszkowicz.film · transcontinental.film