HOUSE ARREST Terms and Conditions

Effective date: 11/6/2026

Who we are and who can purchase

These Terms govern purchases and use of the HOUSE ARREST device (the "Device") and www.housearrestmonitor.com (the "Website"), operated by RTamayo Creative LLC ("we," "us," or "our"). By accepting these Terms at checkout, you agree to them. Purchases and use are open to adults aged 18 or older in the United States. No registration or user account is required.

The product

HOUSE ARREST is a personal entertainment accessory designed to resemble an ankle monitor. It is not an official law enforcement monitor, security system, medical device, or emergency service. It imposes no legal restriction on your movement and does not report violations to authorities.

Connect the Device to your home Wi-Fi using the supplied instructions. When it loses connection, it sounds an alarm saying "PAROLE VIOLATION" and displays that message on its screen. Wi-Fi range, outages, interference, and power conditions can affect operation. A disconnection does not necessarily mean you have left your home; the Device does not establish a GPS boundary or guarantee uninterrupted operation.

Independent product and purchase contents

HOUSE ARREST is an independent product, not affiliated with, sponsored, endorsed, or authorized by any third-party brand, product, publisher, or gaming platform, including Rockstar Games, Take-Two Interactive, or Grand Theft Auto. Your purchase includes only the Device and accessories expressly listed at checkout. It does not include any video game, license, subscription, in-game content, or access to a gaming service.

Orders payment and delivery

Our store and checkout use Shopify. Payments are processed through the payment services available at our Shopify checkout. Prices, applicable taxes, shipping charges, and available delivery options are displayed before purchase. Please provide accurate payment and delivery information.

Delivery locations and any shipment estimates or preorder conditions will be disclosed before purchase. If we cannot ship within the applicable promised period, we will provide any delay notice, cancellation option, or refund required by law. Contact housearrestmonitor@gmail.com about an order or delivery issue.

The Device is sold, not loaned or rented. Once purchased, it belongs to you and does not need to be returned at the end of the experience. There are no HOUSE ARREST subscriptions, usage fees, prizes, or penalties for leaving Wi-Fi range or stopping use. Your own internet service costs remain your responsibility.

Returns exchanges and refunds

All sales of the HOUSE ARREST device are final. We do not accept returns or exchanges or offer refunds, except as required by applicable law. This policy does not limit any consumer rights, warranties, or remedies that cannot legally be excluded. For a defective, damaged, or incorrect product, contact housearrestmonitor@gmail.com.

Voluntary and safe use

Use is entirely voluntary. You may remove the Device and stop using it at any time. Do not use it to restrain, coerce, or restrict another person or represent it as official monitoring equipment. Its messages are fictional and do not require you to stay indoors, avoid activity, skip breaks, or disregard health, safety, or personal needs.

Follow the supplied setup, charging, care, removal, and alarm instructions. Use only a Wi-Fi network you are authorized to access. Wear the strap comfortably without overtightening it. Remove the Device and stop use if it causes pain, numbness, irritation, or discomfort.

The Device is not waterproof. Remove it before showering, bathing, or swimming. Do not submerge it or expose it to water, and do not use it in a sauna or steam room.

Privacy and communications

The Device does not transmit user information to HOUSE ARREST. We do not remotely monitor your location, movements, or connection status. It does not connect to your social media or video game accounts or initiate phone calls, SMS messages, emails, or automatic posts.

Website visits, purchases, delivery, and support involve information processed separately, including by Shopify, as explained in our Privacy Notice available on the Website. Purchase-related emails and support correspondence are separate from device operation.

Content you choose to share

Posting content is optional. If you have accepted these Terms and voluntarily post HOUSE ARREST content tagging @housearrestmonitor, you grant us a nonexclusive, royalty-free permission to repost it on our Website and social channels to promote HOUSE ARREST, including your name, handle, likeness, or voice appearing in it. You retain ownership. We may crop or resize content without materially changing its meaning.

You must have the rights and permissions needed for this use. Tagging alone does not establish those rights or acceptance of these Terms; we may request separate permission. Paid advertising or other uses beyond this scope require separate authorization. Contact housearrestmonitor@gmail.com to request that we stop future use. We will stop new uses and remove content from channels we control within a reasonable period, subject to applicable law; we cannot control copies independently shared by others.

Website use and responsibility

Website content and HOUSE ARREST branding belong to us or our licensors. Purchasing the Device does not transfer those intellectual property rights. Do not commit fraud, disrupt the Website, introduce harmful code, attempt unauthorized access, or commercially exploit protected content without permission.

Website access may be interrupted. To the extent permitted by law, we are not responsible for indirect or consequential losses arising from Website or Device use. Nothing here excludes enforceable product promises, applicable warranties, accepted order obligations, or liability that cannot lawfully be limited, including applicable liability for personal injury, fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct.

Changes and contact

Updates to these Terms apply prospectively and do not retroactively alter an accepted purchase or existing content permission without agreement where required. If a provision is unenforceable, the remaining provisions continue to apply to the extent permitted by law. Your mandatory consumer rights remain unaffected.
