Income and Financial Support Verification Documentation

Provide a minimum of two forms of income verification (providing more than the minimum required documentation will help MYSA better evaluate your application for assistance):

- Social Security, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), or Social Security Disability Income (SSDI)
- Government assistance, e.g., food stamps, grants, loans, cash allowances, rental assistance, childcare assistance
- Unemployment statement
- Letter of termination from employer
- Pay stubs for each working non-dependent adult (4 weeks) showing monthly average income
- Self-employed: 1040 income on Schedule C or quarterly income statement showing income before deductions
- Pensions or retirement
- Child support income and alimony payments
- Bank statements that show income source (minimum of 3 months)
- Letter or financial statement from an organization that knows the applicant's financial status, household size, and situation. This letter must be on letterhead and cannot be from a relative, friend, or MYSA board member/ leadership team member. This is not required unless needed for a second verification.
- Student loan living expense portion

If there is no current income verification, zero income, negative income, or no approved documentation of income, the financial assistance application cannot be processed.
