

NEKAJUI

A RITZ-CARLTON RESERVE
PENINSULA PAPAGAYO

- First Ritz-Carlton Reserve in Central and South America
- Located within Peninsula Papagayo, a globally recognized Five-Star destination
- Set at one of the highest points within the peninsula, offering expansive ocean views
- Architecture inspired by traditional Chorotega haciendas, reinterpreted in a contemporary setting
- A sacred Ceiba tree serving as a cultural and symbolic gathering point
- A living art destination featuring over 550 curated works by leading Latin American artists
- A suspended pedestrian bridge connecting key areas while preserving the natural landscape
- A scenic funicular providing seamless access between the cliffside setting and the beach
- Low-density design with only 107 rooms and 36 residences across 46 acres, ensuring space and exclusivity
- Exceptionally spacious, residential-style accommodations with seamless indoor-outdoor living, featuring expansive terraces, outdoor showers, and plunge pools
- Exclusive treetop accommodations offering immersive luxury within the forest canopy
- Expanded residential offering with 36 private residences, ideal for extended stays and group travel
- Villa Guayacán, a 10-bedroom ultra-private estate offering approximately 37,000 sq ft of indoor and outdoor living, featuring expansive entertaining spaces, multiple terraces, an infinity pool, and dedicated areas for gatherings, wellness, and relaxation
- Manzu Personal Host delivering highly personalized and intuitive service
- El Nido, an elevated sanctuary designed for intimate experiences and connection with nature
- A signature Spa featuring one of the largest hydrotherapy pools in Central America
- Home to the only restaurant in Peninsula Papagayo led by renowned Chef Diego Muñoz
- Culinary experiences led by internationally acclaimed chefs, including destination-driven Dining Beyond experiences
- Curated in-resort experiences including cultural, culinary, and artisan-led activities designed to immerse guests in Costa Rica's traditions
- Full access to Peninsula Papagayo's world-class amenities, including Papagayo Explorers, SurfX, Papagayo Park, championship golf, and water sports