(01) THE RESIDENCE

A lakefront palazzo with frescoed salons, a private harbour and two hectares of park.

Palazzo Lume has looked over the lake at Bellagio for two centuries. Its salons keep their frescoed ceilings, and the piano nobile opens onto a stone terrace above a private harbour.

Two hectares of park include a limonaia, a chapel and a gardener’s lodge. The house has been modernised with care, with a lift, new services and a spa wing hidden in the old stables.
